Communication and Information Technology in (Intercultural) Language Teaching Mariusz Marczak 2014-07-03 The topic of this book is in congruence with the current trends in foreign language education worldwide. On the one hand, it tackles the concept and implementation of intercultural language teaching; on the other, it analyses the circumstances in which information and communication technology may be utilised in the contemporary EFL classroom. Both intercultural teaching and Computer Assisted Language Learning (CALL) have been promoted by national/international educational documents in Europe, the USA and Asia, and endorsed by international organisations, including the Council of Europe and UNESCO. This book constitutes a pioneering attempt at establishing the role of ICT in English language and culture teaching within the Polish education system. However, the research instruments used within both research modules are applicable to other education systems worldwide, while the results obtained have implications for intercultural and computer-assisted language education in international contexts. The research results presented in the book highlight to the broad EFL profession a wide range of issues relating to the use of ICT in the foreign language classroom. They also offer materials writers, software designers and EFL teachers criteria with which to evaluate the intercultural component of CALL software.

Maps of Empire Kyle Wanberg 2020 Maps of Empire examines how literature was affected by the decay and break up of old models of imperial administration in the mid-twentieth century.

Autour des travaux de Jules Ronjat, 1913-2013 Pierre Escudé 2016-11-01 Les actes du colloque «Ronjat» nous font redécouvrir les deux thèses majeures traitant du contact des langues d'un linguiste à qui l'on doit une patiente relecture des Cours de linguistique générale de Ferdinand de Saussure. La première de ces thèses (Essai de syntaxe des parlers provençaux modernes, 1913) étudie la langue occitane dans sa singularité de langue vivante, sociale et littéraire, dans une France qui en pleine construction nationale démultiplie les moyens de faire disparaître son multilinguisme natif. Ronjat y parle pour la première fois d'«intercompréhensions». La seconde thèse (Le développement du langage observé chez un enfant bilingue, 1913) traite du bilinguisme précoce (ici français-allemand), de ses réalités et de ses bénéfices dans un monde où les préventions contre le bilinguisme sont massives. Ronjat part de l'analyse fine du terrain. Il y a différentes langues sur un même territoire national; un même individu peut se construire en plusieurs langues. Le contact des langues peut être didactisé et doit l'être si l'on veut qu'il ne soit source de conflit ou de pathologie – langagière ou sociale. Au rebours des idées nationalistes de son temps, Jules Ronjat sera – quoique ami de Saussure, de Meillet, de Grammont – exclu de la communauté scientifique française. Le colloque de Toulouse a jeté les bases d'une redécouverte des travaux de Jules Ronjat (1864-1925) et de leurs perspectives dans les domaines de la linguistique et de la sociolinguistique, de la didactique des langues et des problèmes linguistiques nationales et européennes.

'Ali Shari'ati and the Shaping of Political Islam in Iran K. Chatterjee 2011-06-06 This book tells the story of how Shari'ati developed a language of political Islam, speaking in an idiom intelligible to the Iranian public and subverting the Shah's regime and its claim to legitimacy.

Adab and Modernity Cathérine Mayeur-Jaouen 2019-12-09 Adab is a concept situated at the heart of Arabic and Islamic civilization. What became of it, towards modernity? The question of the civilising process (Norbert Elias) helps us reflect on this story.

Collection F - L'Intercompréhension : une autre approche pour l'enseignement des langues (ebook) Sandrine Caddéo 2013-01-29 La "collection F" s'articule réflexion théorique et pratiques de terrain pour aider les enseignants à trouver des solutions pédagogiques pertinentes face à la variété des situations d'enseignement. L'intercompréhension : une autre approche pour l'enseignement des langues Parler chacun dans sa langue et se comprendre est une situation de communication concevable tout comme apprendre rapidement à lire des textes écrits dans plusieurs langues sans avoir à les parler. Pour rendre possible de telles pratiques et poussés par le désir de promouvoir le plurilinguisme, des chercheurs ont exploré et développé une autre approche pour l'enseignement des langues : l'intercompréhension. En changeant les objectifs d'apprentissage et en ne les centrant que sur les compétences réceptives, n'importe quel locuteur peut apprendre à comprendre à l'écrit et à l'oral plusieurs langues étrangères en très peu de temps, notamment si ces langues sont proches, comme les langues romanes par exemple. Ce livre aidera le lecteur à mieux comprendre les enjeux des politiques linguistiques, les principes méthodologiques, les modes d'application didactique et à découvrir différentes méthodes déjà accessibles et expérimentées.

Italian Orientalism Fabrizio De Donno 2019 The on-going debate on the legacies of modern European Orientalism has yet to fully consider its Italian context. Italian Orientalism is an interdisciplinary and transnational study both of the reception of European Orientalism in Risorgimento Italy, and of the development of an Italian Orientalist expression in the post-unification and fascist periods. The pan-European phenomenon is approached in its epistemological, aesthetic and political dimensions, while focusing on India and Indology as triggers of the so-called «Oriental Renaissance» and the Indo-European or Aryan idea. Fabrizio De Donno analyses the relationship between Orientalist scholarship and literary aesthetics in their related European and Italian contexts, mapping their interaction with linguistic, racial, religious and colonial thought. Paying particular attention to some of the major Italian intellectual, academic and literary figures of the time - from Giovanni Berchet, Giacomo Leopardi and Carlo Cattaneo, to Angelo De Gubernatis, Cesare Lombroso, Carlo Conti Rossini, Giosuè Carducci, Guido Gozzano and others - the book explores how Orientalism and Aryanism emerge as major if controversial discourses of modernity. They provide the rhetorical tools of identity politics which, it is argued, are central to notions of Italian nationhood, cosmopolitanism and Euromania.

Fronteiras linguísticas em contextos migratórios 2019-01-01 As fronteiras nunca impediram a circulação de homens e mulheres no mundo. Invasores, colonos, migrantes, refugiados, pessoas deslocadas, viajantes estão constantemente cruzando essas fronteiras em todas as direções, misturando línguas e costumes em contato com as populações locais. Os autores deste livro exploram, cada um à sua maneira, os contextos em que as relações entre línguas e fronteiras foram forjadas nos níveis político e ideológico, com forte ênfase na observação das práticas linguísticas e na análise de diálogos e interações entre falantes de diferentes idiomas. A articulação das diferentes abordagens possibilita aqui, pelo menos em parte, explicar a complexidade dos fenômenos observados. Tal qual um manifesto em favor do reconhecimento do multilinguismo, o livro homenageia as práticas bilíngues e os recursos criativos que cada falante implementa, onde ele está, de onde ele está falando, para criar um vínculo com os outros.

New Aspects of Quantity Surveying Practice Duncan Cartlidge 2017-11-28 In this fourth edition of New Aspects of Quantity Surveying Practice, renowned quantity surveying author Duncan Cartlidge reviews the history of the quantity surveyor, examines and reflects on the state of current practice with a concentration on new and innovative practice, and attempts to predict the future direction of quantity surveying practice in the UK and worldwide. The book champions the adaptability and flexibility of the quantity surveyor, whilst covering the hot topics which have emerged since the previous edition's publication, including: the RICS 'Futures' publication; Building Information Modelling (BIM); mergers and acquisitions; a more informed and critical evaluation of the NRM; greater discussion of ethics to reflect on the renewed industry interest; and a new chapter on Dispute Resolution. As these issues create waves throughout the industry whilst it continues its global growth in emerging markets, such reflections on QS practice are now more important than ever. The book is essential reading for all Quantity Surveying students, teachers and professionals. It is particularly suited to undergraduate professional skills courses and non-cognate postgraduate students looking for an up to date understanding of the industry and the role.

Handbook of Multilingualism and Multiculturalism Geneviève Zarate 2011 Built around the concept of linguistic and cultural plurality, this book defines language as an instrument of action and symbolic power. Plurality is conceived here as : a complex array of voices, perspectives and approaches that seeks to preserve the complexity of the multilingual and multicultural enterprise, including language learning and teaching ; a coherent system of relationships among various languages, research traditions and research sites that informs qualitative methods of inquiry into multilingualism and its uses in everyday life ; a view of language as structured sociohistorical object, observable from several simultaneous spatiotemporal standpoints, such as that of daily interactions or that which sustains the symbolic power of institutions. This book is addressed to teacher trainers, young researchers, decision makers, teachers concerned with the role of languages in the evolution of societies and educational systems. It aims to elicit discussion by articulating practices, field observations and analyses based on a multidisciplinary conceptual framework.

The mantle of the prophet : learning and power in modern Iran Roy P. Mottahedeh 1986

The Islamic Revolution in Iran Hamid Algar 1980

Mehrsprachige kommunikative Kompetenz durch Interkomprehension Tanja Prokopowicz 2017-01-16 Die vorliegenden Fallstudien stellen eine empirische Untersuchung von interkomprehensiven Lernprozessen dar. Unter Interkomprehension versteht man die Fähigkeit, bisher nicht gelernte Sprachen auf der Basis von Vorkenntnissen verstehen zu können. Die Studie beleuchtet die interkomprehensiven Interaktionen deutschsprachiger Romanistikstudierender, die auf einer webbasierten Plattform mit romanophonen Muttersprachlern an einem Projekt arbeiteten. Arbeitssprachen des Projekts sind Spanisch, Französisch, Portugiesisch, Italienisch und Rumänisch. Im Zentrum der Arbeit steht die Frage, wie die Forschungsteilnehmenden die interkomprehensionsbasierte Mehrsprachigkeit erleben und welche Rückwirkungen sich daraus für die Ausbildung ihrer Sprachlernkompetenz ergeben. Die Studie basiert auf einem qualitativen Design. Durch die Analyse von Forums- und Chatnachrichten, Lernprotokollen, Sprachlernbiographien und Interviews konnten Chancen und Grenzen interkomprehensiven Lernens aus der Sicht der Forschungsteilnehmenden ermittelt werden.

Arab Representations of the Occident Rasheed El-Enany 2006-04-18 This is one of the first books in English to explore Arab responses to Western culture and values in modern Arab literature. Through in-depth research El-Enany examines the attitudes as expressed mainly through works of fiction written by Arab authors during the twentieth, and, to a lesser extent, nineteenth century. It constitutes an original addition to the age-old East-West debate, and is particularly relevant to the current discussion on Islam and the West. Alongside raising highly topical questions about stereotypical ideas concerning Arabs and Muslims in general, the book explores representations of the West by the foremost Arab intellectuals over a two-century period, up to the present day, and will appeal to those with an interest in Islam, the Middle East, nationalism and the so-called 'Clash of Civilizations'.

L'hétérogénéité dans la classe de langue Elena Da Silva Akborisova 2018-09-13 Les nouvelles réalités mondiales rendent les questions autour de l'hétérogénéité incontournables. Le développement de l'immigration, des échanges culturels ou linguistiques, les conflits, la professionnalisation des études supérieures, par exemple, modifient le profil des classes qui sont dorénavant constituées de publics aux niveaux de langues divers, aux parcours langagiers variés, aux langues d'héritage multiples. De par sa nature, toute classe est multi-niveaux. D'une manière générale pourtant, l'école tend à envisager cette hétérogénéité comme un handicap plutôt que comme un atout. Et, selon sa sensibilité et sa conception de ce qu'est l'apprentissage, l'enseignant se positionne dans ce débat en jonglant entre approche individualisée et objectifs d'universalité. Cet ouvrage souhaite démontrer que cette qualité intrinsèque de la classe peut néanmoins être source de richesses. Abordant ces questions fondamentales, le présent volume rassemble douze articles issus de communications présentées lors de la journée d'étude organisée par l'unité de recherche PLIDAM – EA 4514 à l'INALCO, à Paris, le 11 mai 2017.

The Train That Had Wings M. Mukundan 2005-01-01 The Train That Had Wings presents modern life in Kerala in terms of a shared but tragically compromised humanity. Mukundan dares to look beneath the routines and facades of everyday life in order to probe depth of sin, greed, and hypocrisy but also to rediscover what brings joy and hope. Sixteen short story translations and a critical introduction, offering examples of Mukundan's realistic, existentialist, psychedelic, and parabolic stories, show his range and talent for the very short story. If Hawthorne wrote "twice told tales," Mukundan writes half-told tales, stories that jump in the middle, stomp around for just a minute, and leap away almost before the reader can settle in. Half-told, but a powerful and infectious half.

Manias, Panics, and Crashes Robert Z. Aliber 2017-12-07 This seventh edition of an investment classic has been thoroughly revised and expanded following the latest crises to hit international markets. Renowned economist Robert Z. Aliber introduces the concept that global financial crises in recent years are not independent events, but symptomatic of an inherent instability in the international system.

Juntos Clorinda Donato 2020-11-18 Juntos: Italian for Speakers of English and Spanish, Third Edition, is the first comprehensive textbook for the teaching of Italian to students who already possess knowledge of Spanish, whether as L1 Spanish speakers, heritage speakers, or L2 Spanish learners. Suitable for students at the high school and college levels, Juntos is also the first textbook to cultivate interlinguistic awareness through intercomprehension, developing bridges that foster the recognition and use of students' bilingual repertoire as a tool for learning Italian and acquiring other Romance languages. Ethics and Spirituality in Islam Francesco Chiabotti 2016-11-07 This volume explores the relation between ethics and spirituality in Islam through an examination of the genres of Sufi adab, including manuals and hagiographical accounts, from the formative period of Sufism until modernity.

Handbook of Research and Practice in Heritage Language Education Peter Pericles Trifonas 2017-09-18 This volume covers the multidimensional and international field of Heritage Language Education, including concepts, practices, and the correlation between culture and language from the perspectives of pedagogy and research. Heritage Language Learning is a new dimension in both the linguistic and pedagogic sciences, and is linked to processes of identity negotiation and cultural inheritance. It is a distinct pedagogical and curricular domain that is not exhausted within the domains of bilingualism and second or foreign language education. A heritage language is not a second or foreign language, it is the vehicle whereby cultural memory is transmitted over time, across distances, communities, and generations. Heritage languages play an important role ensuring the balance between coherence and pluralism in contemporary societies that have come to realize that diversity is an advantage for social, cultural, and economic reasons. The volume includes topics like First Nation indigenous languages, languages in diaspora, immigrant and minority languages, and contributions from North, central and South America, Europe, Africa, Asia, and Australia. It addresses the social, linguistic, and cultural issues in educational contexts in a new way by taking up questions of globalization, difference, community, identity, democracy, ethics, politics, technology, language rights and cultural policies through the evolving field of Heritage Language Education.

Germany's Two Unifications R. Speirs 2004-12-06 Germany's unique historical experience of undergoing national unification twice in a little over a century makes it a fascinating object of study. In this volume the processes of unification are analysed from the point of view of historians, political scientists and literary historians. Because each event had quite different historical pre-conditions (the first having been long anticipated and pursued, whereas the second took virtually all participants by surprise), the processes of adjustment to it have differed in many ways. Yet in each case the idea of national unity has held sway powerfully as a norm guiding the responses of those involved.

Narrated Empires Johanna Chovanec 2021-02-05 This book examines the role of imperial narratives of multinationalism as alternative ideologies to nationalism in Central and Eastern Europe, the Balkans, and the Middle East from the revolutions of 1848 up to the defeat and subsequent downfall of the Habsburg and Ottoman empires in 1918. During this period, both empires struggled against a rising tide of nationalism to legitimize their own diversity of ethnicities, languages and religions. Contributors scrutinise the various narratives of identity that they developed, supported, encouraged or unwittingly created and left behind for posterity as they tried to keep up with the changing political realities of modernity. Beyond simplified notions of enforced harmony or dynamic dissonance, this book aims at a more polyphonic analysis of the various voices of Habsburg and Ottoman multinationalism: from the imperial centres and in the closest proximity to sovereigns, to provinces and minorities, among intellectuals and state servants, through novels and newspapers. Combining insights from history, literary studies and political sciences, it further explores the lasting legacy of the empires in post-imperial narratives of loss, nostalgia, hope and redemption. It shows why the two dynasties keep haunting the twenty-first century with fears and promises of conflict, coexistence, and reborn greatness.

State of Translation Einar Wigen 2018-09-12 International politics often requires two or more languages. The resulting interlingual relations mean translation, either by interpreters who are quite literally in the middle of conversations, or by bilingual statesmen who negotiate internationally in one language and then legitimize domestically in another. Since no two languages are the same, what can be argued in one language may be impossible in another. Political concepts can thus be significantly reformulated in the translation process. State of Translation examines this phenomenon using the case of how 19th-century Ottoman and later Turkish statesmen struggled to reconcile their arguments in external languages (French, then English) with those in their internal language (Ottoman, later Turkish), and in the process further entangled them. Einar Wigen shows how this process structured social relations between the Ottoman state and its interlocutors, both domestically and internationally, and shaped the dynamics of Turkish relations with Europe.

Intercomprehension and Plurilingualism: Assets for Italian Language in the USA Roberto Dolci 2015-08-01 "Intercomprehension and Plurilingualism: Assets for Italian Language in the USA," edited by Roberto Dolci and Anthony Guide pour le développement et la mise en œuvre de curriculums pour une éducation plurilingue et interculturelle Jean-Claude Beacco 2016-08-01 Comprendre et vivre la diversité des langues et des cultures est à la fois un but de et un moyen pour un enseignement de qualité. L'éducation plurilingue et interculturelle répond à la nécessité et aux exigences d'une éducation de qualité: acquisition de compétences, de connaissances et d'attitudes, diversité d'expériences d'apprentissage et constructions d'identités culturelles individuelles et collectives. Il s'agit de rendre plus efficaces les dispositifs d'enseignement et d'améliorer leur contribution à la réussite des élèves les plus vulnérables ainsi qu'à la cohésion sociale. Ce guide a pour objectif d'aider à une meilleure mise en œuvre des valeurs et principes de l'éducation plurilingue et interculturelle dans l'enseignement de toutes les langues: étrangères, régionales ou minoritaires, langues classiques ou langue(s) de scolarisation.

The Action-oriented Approach Enrica Piccardo 2019-07-24 This book presents the background to the current shift in language education towards action-oriented/action-based teaching, and provides a theorization of the Action-oriented Approach (AoA). It discusses the concepts and theories that paved the way for the AoA and explores their relevance for the way language education is conceived and implemented in the classroom. In the process, it revisits the concept of competence and discusses the dynamic notions of mediation and plurilingualism. The authors explain the way in which the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) and its recent update, the CEFR Companion Volume, broaden the scope of language education, in particular in relation to the actional turn. The book provides scholars and practitioners with a research-informed description of the AoA, explains its implications for curriculum planning, teaching and assessment, and elaborates on its pedagogical implications.

Islam and the Post-Revolutionary State in Iran Homa Omid 2016-07-27 '...her short analysis of the Iranian armed forces in the 1980s is first-rate, so too is her much more substantial section on women and the state in Iran...As well as offering useful insights into the workings of the Islamic state in Iran, this readable book also provides a warning of the struggles ahead in many other Muslim societies.' - Anoushiravan Ehteshami, Times Higher Education Supplement ;Islam has been the driving force shaping the ideology and the power base of the Iranian revolution. This volume engages critically with the Islamic perspective and promises offered by the revolution. Looking at the rise of the religious institution as a revolutionary force, the author observes their post-revolutionary policies in the domains of politics, economics, education, the armed forces and women's status. In the event, the volume demonstrates that the Iranian government has failed to deliver on most, if not all, of its Islamic pledges.

Mehrsprachigkeit in der Schule Christian Helmchen 2021-08-09 Der Band richtet sich gleichermaßen an Forschende und Lehrende in Bildungseinrichtungen für die verschiedensten Altersstufen, die sich nicht nur für die vielfältigen Dimensionen und Potenziale von Mehrsprachigkeit und ihrer Didaktik interessieren, sondern die den Wunsch der Herausgeber:innen teilen, Brücken zwischen Erkenntnissen der Forschung und ihrer unterrichtspraktischen Umsetzung zu schlagen, Phänomene der Mehrsprachigkeit in ihrer ganzen lebensweltlichen Fülle zu verstehen und kritisch zu beurteilen und schließlich daran mitzuwirken, dass der Fremdsprachenunterricht durch seine Öffnung für sprachenübergreifendes Lernen einen konstitutiven Beitrag zu einer zeitgemäßen Erziehung in einer wesentlich durch Vernetzung gekennzeichneten Welt leistet.

Plurale Ansätze im Fremdsprachenunterricht in Deutschland Silvia Melo-Pfeifer 2018-09-24 Mit dem Referenzrahmen für Plurale Ansätze zu Sprachen und Kulturen im Fremdsprachenunterricht (REPA) liegt ein Instrument vor, das für die Unterrichtskonzeption und Unterrichtsplanung wichtige Hilfestellungen bietet. Im Unterschied zu anderen europäischen Ländern wurde der REPA in Deutschland bisher eher zögerlich rezipiert dem versucht die vorliegende Veröffentlichung entgegenzuwirken, indem sie in zentrale Konzepte der Pluralen Ansätze für den Fremdsprachenunterricht einführt und die Instrumente und Datenbanken des REPA vorstellt und untersucht.

Handbuch Mehrsprachigkeits- und Mehrkulturalitätsdidaktik Christiane Fäcke 2019-09-23 Dieses Handbuch bietet erstmals einen umfassenden Überblick über den Stand der Forschung und zur Praxis der Mehrsprachigkeits- und Mehrkulturalitätsdidaktik. Die über 120 Artikel behandeln u.a.: Sprachenpolitik (national und EU), Interkomprehension, Erst-, Zweit- und Mehrsprachenerwerb, Tertiärsprachendidaktik, lebensweltliche Vielsprachigkeit, Herkunftssprachen, bilingualen Sachfachunterricht, autochthone Mehrsprachigkeiten, Kompetenzorientierung, Didaktik der Grenzregionen, interkulturelles Lernen, Translanguaging, Unterricht an mehr- oder vielsprachigen Lerngruppen u.v.a.m.

The Discourse of Europe Sharon Millar 2007-10-25 In this volume we approach the question of what it is to be European by considering the way in which citizens talk about their everyday lives, as they are perceived against the background of Europe and European issues. Hence, the volume will offer insights into the rarely glimpsed micro political world of ordinary talk and explore the way in which such talk in social interaction and other spheres might help us understand what Europe means to a range of its citizens. Using a range of broadly discursive approaches we will touch on, inter alia, issues of identity, youth, borders, ethnicity, local politics, and minority languages. In the end, we suggest, it is a common sense view of pragmatic utility that centres what it is to be European, and this is something which is continually fluid and shifting within ever changing social, historical and political circumstances.

Des enfants et des langues à l'école - Ebook Anne Feunteun 2015-02-18 Destinées aux enfants, enseignants et formateurs en langues, cette collection propose de faire un point sur les principaux champs de l'enseignement et/ou l'apprentissage des langues.

A History of Modern Morocco Susan Gilson Miller 2013-04-15 "This book offers a richly documented survey of modern Moroccan history. Concise and readable, it will enthrall all those searching for the background to present-day events in the region"--

Policies and Practices for Teaching Sociocultural Diversity Conseil de l'Europe 2010-12-01 This fourth and final volume of the series of publications from the Council of Europe project Policies and Practices for Teaching Sociocultural Diversity (2006-09) includes case studies presented at the final conference held in Oslo (Norway) from 26 to 28 October 2009. These concrete examples illustrate the conditions of implementation and adaptation to national contexts of the 'Framework of teacher competences for engaging with diversity', which is one of the final products of the project. The competences, which break down into three main groups, namely 'Knowledge and Understanding', 'Communication and Relationships' and 'Management and Teaching', encourage future teachers to reflect on and identify their own personal positions, in various environments, in order to develop a clearer sense of their ethnic and cultural identities and to examine their attitudes vis- -vis different groups of students.

The Mantle of the Prophet Roy P. Mottahedeh 2008-10 A new edition of Mottahedeh's gripping account of Islam and Politics in revolutionary Iran.

Förderung von Sprachlernkompetenz zu Beginn der Sekundarstufe Steffi Morkötter 2016-08-15 Interkomprehension, d.h. eine fremde Sprache verstehen zu können, ohne sie formal erlernt oder in ihrer natürlichen Umgebung erworben zu haben, ist eine Fähigkeit, die die Mehrsprachigkeitsdidaktik zum Zweck eines raschen Aufbaus vor allem rezeptiver Kompetenzen und einer Förderung von Sprachlernkompetenz nutzt. Insbesondere für den Erwerb einer dritten Fremdsprache liegen vielversprechende Ergebnisse vor. Doch können auch schon junge SchülerInnen mit geringen Sprachlernerfahrungen von interkomprehensiv gestütztem Lernen profitieren? Welche Strategien setzen sie ein? Wie sprechen sie über ihre sprachlichen Beobachtungen und Handlungen? Antworten auf diese Fragen versucht eine explorativ-interpretative Untersuchung. Im Rahmen einer longitudinalen Einzelfallstudie mit einem Sechstklässler und in einer 6. und 7. Klasse wurden Performanz- und Prozessdaten zu einschlägigen Aufgabenformaten und verschiedenen Zielsprachen (Englisch, Französisch, Italienisch, Niederländisch und Spanisch) sowie Befragungsdaten erhoben und analysiert.

Psychology of Literacy Sylvia Scribner 2013-10-01
