The scholars contend that notwithstanding its sometimes aimless appearance and apparently unstructured content, casual conversation is a very structured activity and has a critical function in the social building of reality. The book proceeds through real examples of casual conversations entailing participants differing in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class. Pulling on understandings from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the book equips readers with the analytic skills to describe the levels of structure and critical interpretive frameworks to elucidate the 'social work' that goes on through chat.

The Mystery of the Missing Diamond

It was a shadowy and tempestuous night. The rain was falling heavily, and the wind was roaring. In the heart of the metropolis, there was a museum, where a invaluable diamond was on exhibit. The diamond was called the African Star, and it was the greatest and most beautiful diamond in the earth. It was protected by a advanced security system, and a squad of weaponized guards. No one could rob it, or so they assumed. But an individual did. Somebody managed to get around the protection, to evade the sentinels, to shatter the window, and to grab the diamond. And no one observed them, no one overheard them, no one recognized who they were. They left no trace, no hint, no evidence. They vanished into the darkness, with the Star of Africa. And the enigma of the lost diamond began.
