The writers contend that notwithstanding its at times aimless appearance and ostensibly unstructured material, casual conversation is a extremely structured undertaking and performs a critical part in the social building of reality. The work works through genuine examples of casual conversations involving participants varying in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class¹². Pulling on understandings from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the work furnishes readers with the analytic skills to describe the strata of structure and critical interpretive frameworks to clarify the ‘social work’ that happens on through chat.
