He was tired of his existence. He was dull, unhappy, and unfulfilled. He had a job he detested, a supervisor he abhorred, and a significant other he didn't cherish. He had no passion, no goal, no meaning. He believed like he was misusing his moment, his capability, his existence. He wanted to modify, he wished to escape, he desired to live. He chose to resign from his job, to split up with his partner, to get rid of his belongings, and to acquire a single fare to the far end of the world. He didn't realize where he was proceeding, he didn't realize what he was carrying out, he didn't know what he was seeking. He only knew that he had to go, that he had to discover, that he had to discover. He embarked on a voyage of a thousand distances, a trip of adventure, of difficulty, of learning, of growth, of alteration.
