Commission has attached increasing importance to the use of financial engineering instruments rather than traditional grant-based financing for the microcredit sector, considering these to be the most efficient option available. This book presents a study of capacity building and structural funds in public managing authorities for the microcredit sector. It presents two surveys to highlight the strengths and weaknesses of the managing authorities' capacity building. The first survey investigates the authorities' need for and interests in capacity building activities, assessing the areas in which capacity building support is needed, and explores the different types of support offered. The second survey analyses the results of the microcredit and microfinance programming activity, investigating its target groups and other operational features. It examines the key monitoring and reporting issues involved in this activity, before analysing the regulatory framework of the interplay between the Europe 2020 overarching strategy and the 'Semester' have marked major discontinuity vis-à-vis the Open Method of Coordination for social protection and social inclusion (Social OMC) of the Lisbon phase. This book therefore asks whether and how Europe matters in the fight against poverty and social exclusion by assessing the emergence and possible institutionalisation of a European multi-level, multi-stakeholder and integrated policy arena in the new institutional framework. Supranational developments, multi-level interactions, as well as the strategy effects at the national level are analysed in six European countries - Belgium, Germany, Italy, Poland, UK and Sweden - with the aim to identify the key factors affecting the implementation of the Europe 2020 anti-poverty strategy. He was tired of his existence. He was uninterested, unhappy, and discontented. He had a employment he hated, a manager he abhorred, and a partner he didn't adore. He had no zeal, no goal, no meaning. He believed like he was wasting his moment, his potential, his life. He wanted to alter, he wanted to run away, he wanted to survive. He decided to leave his work, to break up with his significant other, to get rid of his stuff, and to acquire a direct fare to the other side of the world. He didn't understand where he was going, he didn't know what he was performing, he didn't realize what he was looking for. He only knew that he had to leave, that he had to discover, that he had to find out. He started on a trip of a thousand kilometers, a voyage of excitement, of challenge, of knowledge, of progress, of alteration.
