He was exhausted of his existence. He was bored, unhappy, and discontented. He had a work he despised, a supervisor he loathed, and a significant other he didn't love. He had no zeal, no purpose, no value. He believed like he was squandering his moment, his possibility, his existence. He wished to alter, he wanted to escape, he desired to exist. He decided to leave his employment, to end things with his significant other, to sell his possessions, and to buy a direct fare to the opposite end of the world. He didn't know where he was going, he didn't understand what he was carrying out, he didn't realize what he was looking for. He only realized that he had to leave, that he had to discover, that he had to uncover. He embarked on a journey of a thousand kilometers, a journey of adventure, of challenge, of education, of progress, of transformation.
