Nightmare that Never Ends

Sam woke up screaming, covered in sweat. He had the same nightmare again, the one where he was chased by a dark figure with a knife. He looked at the clock, it was 3:15 am. He tried to calm himself down, telling himself it was just a dream. But he knew it was more than that. He knew the figure was real, and it was coming for him. He had seen it before, in the news, in the police sketches, in the faces of the victims. It was the serial killer that had been terrorizing the city for months. And Sam was his next target.

As he rose from his bed, Jonathans mind buzzed with anticipation for the adventures that awaited him. The aroma of freshly brewed coffee wafted through the air, a comforting invitation from the kitchen where his mother, a beacon of warmth and love, was busy preparing breakfast. The rhythmic clinking of utensils against pans echoed through the house, a familiar sound that filled the space with a sense of home.
