Asia-Pacific Trade and Investment Report 2017

2017-11-16 United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific This report aims to deepen understanding of trends and developments in trade, investment and regional integration in the Asia-Pacific region; emerging issues in trade, investment and trade facilitation policies, and impacts of these policies on countries' abilities to meet the challenges of achieving inclusive and sustainable development. It offers innovative policy options to meet the challenges of achieving sustainable trade and investment. It contains separate country and subregional country briefs. Part I delves into recent trends and developments pertaining to trade in merchandise and commercial services, and foreign direct investment (FDI) flows. Part II analyses how trade and investment are interlinked and can be channeled into sustainable development.

Economic and Social Survey of Asia and the Pacific 2019

2019-06-23 Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific The region has seen tremendous economic and social progress over the last 50 years. However, despite progress on many fronts, the region is not on track to meet many of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The gains from economic growth are not being shared by all. Available jobs do not fully translate into decent work. The region is home to five of the world's 10 countries most affected by climate risks. Policies are needed to maintain growth momentum while enhancing the drivers of sustainable development. The Survey explores the critical role of investment for SDG requirements.

Country gender assessment of agriculture and the rural sector in Tonga

2019-11-22 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations The objective of the assessment is to analyse the agriculture and rural sectors from a gender perspective at the macro level (policy), meso level (institutional) and micro level (community and household). The Assessment seeks to identify gender inequalities in access to critical productive resources, assets, services and opportunities. The assessment looks at the priorities, needs and constraints of both women and men in agricultural and rural communities, and the gaps that exist in responding to these issues. It also provides recommendations and guidance to promote gender sensitivity in future programmes and projects, and identifies possible partners for gender-related activities. This Assessment is also intended to raise awareness about gender issues among policy-makers, FAO officers, NGOs and community-based organizations (CBOs) in Tonga. It provides background and gender-related information and can be used as a tool to mainstream gender perspectives in future policies, projects and programmes in ways that empower rural women.

Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2020

2020-06-03 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS) The Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment provides insight into key regional strategic, geopolitical, economic, military and security topics. Authors include leading regional analysts and academics Douglas Barrie, William Choong, Aaron Connelly, Andrew Davies, Michael Elleman, Bonnie S. Glaser, Euan Graham, Christopher W. Hughes, Meia Nouwens, Brendan Taylor and William Tow.

Sustainable Development Research in the Asia-Pacific Region

2018-02-27 Walter Leal Filho This multidisciplinary book focuses on best practices in sustainability research in the Asia-Pacific Region. Drawing links between research, practice, education for sustainability and the needs of industry, it addresses the sustainable development goals (SDGs). The book also presents research undertaken by a wide range of universities on matters related to sustainable development, in order to promote research in this area across multiple disciplines. Four key themes are explored: (1) Education for Sustainability. (2) Sustainable Cities. (3) Sustainable Buildings. (4) Sustainable Infrastructure. This unique book documents and disseminates the wealth of know-how on sustainable development research in the Asia-Pacific Region today. It presents lessons learned and comparative case studies from various countries, including India, China, Indonesia, the Philippines, Bangladesh, New Zealand and Australia.

The Asia-Pacific Disaster Report 2015

2016-02-29 United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific The world's most disaster-prone region has witnessed natural disasters that affected development. Building resilience to natural disasters is crucial. Disaster risk reduction (DRR) must be integrated into national development planning. This report assesses the state of resilience in the region, and disaster-related goals and targets of the Sustainable Development Goals and the Sendai Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction. It highlights drought and reviews information management that would equip many countries in providing the right information to the right people at the right time, paying attention to the need to integrate DRR into development planning and government. The goal is to build resilience towards achieving sustainable development.

Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment 2022

2022-06-10 The International Institute for Strategic Studies (IISS) The Asia-Pacific Regional Security Assessment examines key regional security issues relevant to the policy-focused discussions of the IISS Shangri-La Dialogue, Asia's premier defence summit convened by the International Institute for Strategic Studies. It is published each year in association with the Dialogue and the issues analysed within its covers are central to discussions at the event. Among the topics explored are: US Indo-Pacific strategy, alliances and security partnerships; Chinese perspectives on regional security; Taiwan's security and the possibility of conflict; the continuing challenges posed by North Korea's nuclear and missile programmes; the nuclear dynamics of Sino-American security relations; air and naval operations in the Asia-Pacific; Sino-American technology competition; Japan's competition and cooperation with China; India's role in the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue (Quad); the evolving regional security engagement of European states and the European Union; China's role as an upstream state in the Mekong sub-region; and the climate crisis and Asia-Pacific security. As this volume goes to press, the war in Ukraine overshadows the international security landscape and many chapters in this volume touch on the conflict's ramifications for security in the Asia-Pacific. Authors include leading regional analysts and academics at the forefront of research and analysis: Aidan Foster-Carter, James Crabtree, Peter A. Dutton, Brian Eyler, Michael Green, Sheryn Lee, Jeffrey G. Lewis, Tanvi Madan, Jeffrey Mazo, Ben Schreer, Yun Sun, Nicholas Szechenyi, Brendan Taylor, Ashley Townshend and Paul Triolo.

The Palgrave Handbook of Asia Pacific Higher Education

2016-10-06 Christopher S. Collins This volume seeks to identify and explore the forces affecting higher education in the Asia Pacific region today. It includes a set of conceptually-rich organizing chapters followed by detailed country-specific studies that detail both the underlying dynamics of these forces and the manner in which they have affected specific countries. In this way, the chapters touch on the complex demographics of the region, how continued and continuous economic development impinges on higher education, and how neoliberalism has affected higher education across many dimensions. The volume also addresses the complex issues associated with cross border education and the daunting challenges of both national and cross-national quality assurance.

Contemporary Issues and Challenge in Early Childhood Education in the Asia-Pacific Region

2016-10-26 Minyi Li This book investigates the unique and dynamic approaches to key issues of changing images of child and childhood, by different countries in the Asia-Pacific. Key concepts considered are re-conceptualizing early childhood education and care, re-examining early learning standards and redefining professionalism. The Asia Pacific region includes countries belonging to both the Majority and Minority worlds and which vary widely in terms of their cultural geography, social-cultural beliefs, and levels of development, demographic profiles, political systems and government commitments to early childhood services. An international team of experienced researchers from different countries guarantees diverse perspectives. By examining different countries' policy choices and evidence-based practices, the authors show how best to provide for young children based on their countries' strategies.

Business Analytics

2016-09-29 Sanz Jorge L C Technological advances in the last five years have allowed organizations to use Business Analytics to provide insights, increase understanding and it is hoped, gain the elusive 'competitive edge'. The rapid development of Business Analytics is impacting all enterprise competences profoundly and classical business professions are being redefined by a much deeper interplay between business and information systems. As computing capabilities for analysis has moved outside the IT glass-house and into the sphere of individual workers, they are no longer the exclusive domain of IT professionals but rather accessible to all employees. Complex open-source data analytics packages and client-level visualization tools deployed in desktops and laptops equip virtually any end-user with the instruments to carry out significant analytical tasks. All the while, the drive to improve 'customer experience' has heightened the demand for data involving customers, providers and entire ecosystems. In response to the proliferation of Business Analytics, a new Center and Masters of Science Program was introduced at the National University of Singapore (NUS). The Center collaborates with over 40 different external partner organizations in Asia-Pacific with which all MSBA students undertake individual projects. Business Analytics: Progress on Applications in Asia Pacific provides a useful picture of the maturity of the Business Analytics domain in Asia Pacific.

Learn analysis report apac pdf pdf..Woody Woodpecker is an animated character that initially appeared in theatrical short films produced by the Walter Lantz Studio and released by Universal Pictures between 1940 and 1972. The character was developed in 1940 by Lantz and storyboard artist Ben "Bugs" Hardaway, who had previously laid the groundwork for two other crazy characters, Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck¹. Woody Woodpecker's character and design evolved over the years, from an mad bird with an unusually garish design to a more refined-looking and acting character.

The stories center around Woody's naughty and often disorderly pranks, his attempts to solve problems, and his interactions with other characters such as Andy Panda, Chilly Willy, Winnie Woodpecker, Knothead, Splinter, Buzz Buzzard, and several others². Woody Woodpecker cartoons were initially broadcast on television in 1957 under the title The Woody Woodpecker Show.

In addition to to the original series, there have been multiple spin-offs and adaptations. For instance, "Wonder Toons: Woody Woodpecker And Many More" is a collection of Woody Woodpecker cartoons along with other animations.

It had been the year 23, and the world stood on the edge of conflict. The USA and PRC, the pair of superpowers, were engaged in a ferocious competition, contending for supplies, dominance, and control. They had developed sophisticated armaments, including lasers, drones, and spacecrafts, that can attack any place, any time. They had also clandestinely built orbital stations, which can fire nuclear missiles, that can destroy the world. They were both set to utilize them, if necessary. But they were not alone. There existed a 3rd entity, a concealed power, which had been observing them, waiting for them, getting ready for them both. They were the extraterrestrials, and they had arrived to halt them both. They had arrived to protect the globe, or to finish it. They had come to initiate the galactic wars that transformed history.

The Northstar motor, manufactured by General Motors (GM) from 1993 until 2011, was a premium 90° V engine range and GM's first manufacturing V-8 with overhead camshafts¹. However, regardless of its initial success, the Northstar engine has been associated with a variety of troubles over the years.

One of the most frequent issues is overheating, which can cause substantial destruction to the engine block. An additional trouble is oil consumption, which can result in low fuel economy and costly repairs. Numerous Northstar engine operators also mention problems with head gaskets, which can lead to getting too hot troubles and lead to expensive repairs.

Specifically, the Northstar engine versions from 1993 to 2005 have been documented to have seepage troubles, damaged seals, harmed head gaskets, more oil loss, damaged valve cover, faulty water pumps, and carbon accumulation. These problems are not significant, but the price to fix the troubles was significantly larger than a lot of other engines due to the complex engineering.

"Bellman & Black" is a novel by Diane Setterfield, a UK-based author known for her bestselling novel, "The Thirteenth Tale". The story revolves around the character of William Bellman, who as a boy commits a minor cruel act that seems to have unforeseen and terrible consequences. The killing of a rook with his catapult is soon forgotten amidst the riot of boyhood games. However, as he grows up and has a family of his own, he seems to be a man blessed by fortune until tragedy strikes. A stranger in black comes into his life, and William starts to wonder if all his happiness is about to be eclipsed. In a desperate bid to save the one precious thing he has left, he enters into a rather strange bargain, with an even stranger partner, to found a decidedly macabre business. And thus, Bellman & Black is born.
