"Bellman & Black" is a novel by Diane Setterfield, a British author known for her bestselling novel, "The Thirteenth Tale". The story revolves around the character of William Bellman, who as a boy commits a small cruel act that seems to have unforeseen and terrible consequences. The killing of a rook with his catapult is soon forgotten amidst the riot of boyhood games. However, as he grows up and has a family of his own, he seems to be a man blessed by fortune until tragedy strikes. A stranger in black comes into his life, and William starts to wonder if all his happiness is about to be eclipsed. In a desperate bid to save the one precious thing he has left, he enters into a rather strange bargain, with an even stranger partner, to found a decidedly macabre business.

Anna could never erase from memory her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at a enchanting summer camp. They were utterly smitten, spending every day exchanging lighthearted banter, exchanging heartfelt thoughts, and experiencing the thrill of first love. Their bond was solid, and they vowed to keep in touch, to cherish their connection, and to love each other forever. But life, as it often does, had different plans in store for them. They lost track of each other, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the turmoil of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their unwavering connection. At a chance encounter, at a long-awaited reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the spark of their connection rekindled. The same electric spark that had drawn them together years ago was still unmistakable. They felt the same excitement that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the burden of their past. Their emotions swirled for the unconditional love they had shared, but their minds grappled with the challenges of their current lives. They were caught in a emotional battle, torn between the alluring memories of their first love and the complications of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a difficult choice. Would they choose the intense connection of their first love,
