Obsession am i small a picture story by-The Life and Legacy of Nelson Mandela*

Nelson Mandela stands as one of the most esteemed leaders of the 20th century. His life journey began on July 18, 1918, in the tranquil village of Mvezo, South Africa. Born into the Thembu royal family, he was bestowed with the name Rolihlahla, meaning “troublemaker” in Xhosa. Mandelas upbringing unfolded amidst a backdrop of racial inequality, where he witnessed firsthand the unjust treatment inflicted upon the Black majority by the ruling white minority government. Driven by a deep sense of fairness, he dedicated his life to the struggle for freedom and justice, joining the African National Congress (ANC), a political organization dedicated to dismantling apartheid, the system of racial segregation that plagued South Africa. Emerging as a compelling lawyer, activist, and leader, Mandela faced numerous arrests and imprisonments for his unwavering resistance and defiance. For 27 years, he endured the harsh conditions and isolation of Robben Island, a notorious prison island, where his hope never wavered. His unwavering commitment to justice continued to inspire and mobilize his people and the world at large. In 1990, he walked out of prison, free at last, and in 1994, he made history as South Africa's first democratically elected Black president. Mandela's leadership ushered in a period of reconciliation, transforming South Africa into a nation of fairness. His global impact extended far beyond South Africa's borders, as he became a beacon of human rights, recognized for his unwavering dedication to these ideals. In 1993, he was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize, alongside numerous other accolades and honors. On December 5, 2013, at the age of 95, Mandela passed away, leaving behind a legacy of resilience, wisdom, and kindness. Revered as the father of the nation and one of history's greatest heroes, Mandela's legacy continues to inspire generations to come.

Star Wars which Changed Chronicle

It had been the year 23, and the world was at the brink of conflict. The USA and China, the two world powers, were locked in a ferocious competition, contending for supplies, power, and dominance. They had engineered sophisticated armaments, such as lasers, drones, and orbiters, which could strike any place, anytime. They had also covertly built orbital stations, which can fire atomic weapons, that can destroy the planet. They were both ready to use these weapons, if at all required. But they were not alone. There was a third entity, a secret force, that had observing them both, waiting for them both, preparing for them. They were the extraterrestrials, and they had come arrived to stop them both. They had come arrived to protect the globe, or to end it all. They had come to start the star wars which changed past.

unfulfilled. He had a employment he hated, a manager he despised, and a girlfriend he didn't love. He had no passion, no aim, no significance. He felt like he was squandering his time, his potential, his being. He wished to alter, he wanted to flee, he wanted to exist. He decided to resign from his employment, to end things with his girlfriend, to sell his belongings, and to buy a one-way pass to the far end of the world. He didn't realize where he was going, he didn't know what he was performing, he didn't know what he was searching for. He only understood that he had to leave, that he had to investigate, that he had to find out. He set out on a journey of a thousand kilometers, a trip of thrill, of difficulty, of education, of growth, of change.
