Alice was perpetually fascinated by the aged mansion perched at the end of the street. Stories of its enigmatic owner, who never ventured out of his secluded abode, had always piqued her curiosity. Whispers circulated about his identity, ranging from a hermit to a intellectual or even a madman, depending on the source. Alice yearned to unravel the truth behind these tales and uncover the secrets concealed within the barred door on the second floor. Driven by an irresistible urge to delve into the mansions mysteries, Alice embarked on a daring escapade. With a heart pounding with a mix of excitement, she discreetly ventured into the mansions grounds, her senses heightened as she approached the off-limits door on the second floor. Standing before the threshold, her hand trembling slightly as she reached for the doorknob, Alice braced herself for the revelations that awaited her beyond. With a deep breath, she turned the knob, the door creaking open to unveil a sight that would forever alter her perception of the world.

He decided to leave his job, to end things with his partner, to sell his belongings, and to purchase a single fare to the far end of the world. He didn't know where he was going, he didn't realize what he was carrying out, he didn't realize what he was searching for. He only realized that he had to depart, that he had to explore, that he had to uncover. He started on a voyage of a thousand distances, a journey of thrill, of challenge, of knowledge, of growth, of change.
