He had no enthusiasm, no purpose, no meaning. He believed like he was squandering his time, his potential, his life. He wished to alter, he wished to flee, he wanted to exist. He chose to quit his work, to split up with his partner, to get rid of his possessions, and to acquire a one-way pass to the opposite end of the earth. He didn't know where he was heading, he didn't understand what he was carrying out, he didn't understand what he was searching for. He only knew that he had to depart, that he had to discover, that he had to find out. He started on a trip of a thousand miles, a voyage of thrill, of challenge, of knowledge, of progress, of transformation.
