The Masterpiece

2016-07-10 Émile Zola The Masterpiece is the tragic story of Claude Lantier, an ambitious and talented young artist from the provinces who has come to conquer Paris and is conquered by the flaws in his own genius. While his boyhood friend Pierre Sandoz becomes a successful novelist, Claude's originality is mocked at the Salon and turns gradually into a doomed obsession with one great canvas. Life - in the form of his model and wife Christine and their deformed child Jacques - is sacrificed on the altar of Art. The Masterpiece is the most autobiographical of the twenty novels in Zola's Rougon-Macquart series. Set in the 1860s and 1870s, it provides a unique insight into his career as a writer and his relationship with Cézanne, a friend since their schooldays in Aix-en-Provence. It also presents a well-documented account of the turbulent Bohemia world in which the Impressionists came to prominence despite the conservatism of the Academy and the ridicule of the general public. ABOUT THE SERIES: For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe. Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship, providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features, including expert introductions by leading authorities, helpful notes to clarify the text, up-to-date bibliographies for further study, and much more.

Khalil

2021-02-16 Yasmina Khadra From the internationally bestselling author of The Attack and The Swallows of Kabul, a gripping first-person narrative about one young man's involvement in France's worst terrorist attack. Khalil, a twenty-three-year-old Belgian of Moroccan descent, plans to detonate a suicide vest in a crowd outside the Stade de France on November 13, 2015. Explosions are rocking Paris, at cafés and the Bataclan theater, and when other bombs drive the stadium crowd to flee in his direction, near the Metro, his time has come. He presses his button, and . . . nothing. Fearing he has failed in his mission for Fraternal Solidarity (FS), an ISIS affiliate, Khalil has little choice but to blend in with his would-be victims and run. Back in Belgium, he must lie low and avoid his militant brethren and the authorities. He relies on his family and friends for places to stay, but he keeps the truth about himself secret. All the while, he contemplates what he almost did, and what he will do next--particularly when it comes to light that his vest accidentally had been a harmless training unit all along, and FS has a new mission planned for him. In this daring, propulsive literary thriller, Yasmina Khadra takes readers to the margins of Europe's glittering capitals, through neighborhoods isolated by government neglect and popular apathy, if not outright racism. And he brings to life an unusual protagonist, a young man struggling with family, religion, and politics who makes fateful choices, and in doing so dramatizes powerful questions about society and human nature.

Anna could never banish from her thoughts her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at a magical summer camp. They were drawn to each other like magnets, spending every day sharing laughter, engaging in deep conversations, and sharing stolen kisses. Their bond was unbreakable, and they vowed to maintain their bond, to cherish their connection, and to never let their love fade. But life, as it often does, had other arrangements in store for them. They lost communication, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the whirlwind of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their unwavering connection. At a chance encounter, at a nostalgic reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the flame of their first love rekindled. The same electric spark that had drawn them together years ago was still palpable. They felt the same thrill that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the weight of time. Their emotions swirled for the unconditional love they had shared, but their minds grappled with the complexity of their current lives. They were caught in a tug-of-war, torn between the alluring memories of their first love and the stability and security of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a heartbreaking choice. Would they choose the all-consuming passion of their first love, risking the uncertainty that lay ahead, or would they hold onto the predictability of their current lives, forever wondering what could have been? Only time would tell if their unbreakable bond would survive the test of time.
