Presenting a thesis title entails a procedure where you present and explain your proposed research to a group of evaluators. This is a common practice in many universities where panels are established to screen and criticize research titles before they are approved to continue with the actual research. The defense typically consists of a question-and-answer session aimed at demonstrating the importance of the research you have chosen and ascertaining if you, as a student, are really able of achieving it.

The field of Engineering Economics and Cost Estimation is a vital aspect of any engineering project. It involves current and upcoming economic factors, making it essential to obtain accurate estimates of future costs, benefits, and other economic parameters. Engineers regularly deal with projects whose scale, complexity, and uncertainty call for complex approaches to planning and budgeting^[1]. Several methods are used for cost estimation, including rough estimates, semi-detailed estimates, or detailed estimates, depending on the needs for the estimates^[2]. Key concepts in this field include overhead costs, cost driver identification, cost allocation methods, capital budgeting, flexible budgeting, zero-based budgeting, budgets, and estimates. A number of models are available for developing cost (or benefit) estimates, such as the per-unit model, the segmenting model, cost indexes, the power-sizing model, and learning curve cost estimating. The quality of a cost estimate typically increases as the resources allocated to developing the estimate increase.

He was exhausted of his existence. He was dull, unhappy, and unsatisfied. He had a work he despised, a manager he abhorred, and a girlfriend he didn't love. He had no zeal, no goal, no value. He believed like he was squandering his hours, his possibility, his being. He wished to alter, he wanted to flee, he wanted to live. He resolved to leave his job, to split up with his girlfriend, to get rid of his possessions, and to acquire a direct pass to the opposite end of the globe. He didn't understand where he was heading, he didn't realize what he was carrying out, he didn't realize what he was seeking. He only realized that he had to go, that he had to explore, that he had to discover. He embarked on a journey of a thousand miles, a trip of thrill, of challenge, of learning, of growth, of alteration.
