The Young Traveler's Gift

2004-05-11 Andy Andrews Before David Ponder ever visited Truman in The Traveler's Gift, Michael Holder began his journey as the last young traveler to receive the unique gifts of wisdom offered by historical greats. In his senior year of high school, Michael hits rock bottom. Having been caught in the wrong place at the wrong time, he has now been suspended from the track team and lost his college scholarship. His coach is angry, his parents are disappointed, and he's diving headfirst into a downward spiral. Facing the bleak future ahead, he sees no way out and wonders if life is really worth living. But with some divine intervention, he's given a second chance when he's offered a once-in-a-lifetime journey of discovery. Rewritten to engage the minds of teens and tweens, The Young Traveler's Gift is sure to encourage and enlighten young men and women as they prepare to face the journeys that lie ahead.

The Politics of the Common Law

2013-05-02 Adam Gearey The Politics of the Common Law offers a critical introduction to the legal system of England and Wales. Unlike other conventional accounts, this revised and updated second edition presents a coherent argument, organised around the central claim that contemporary postcolonial common law must be understood as an articulation of human rights and open justice. The book examines the impact of the European Convention and European Union law on the structures and ideologies of the common law and engages with the politics of the rule of law. These themes are read into normative accounts of civil and criminal procedure that stress the importance of due process. The final sections of the book address the reality of civil and criminal procedure in the light of recent civil unrest in the UK and the growing privatisation of public services. The book questions whether it is possible to find a balance between the requirements of economics and the demands of justice.

The Mystery of the Missing Diamond

It was a dark and stormy night. The rain was pouring down, and the wind was howling. In the middle of the city, there was a museum, where a priceless diamond was on display. The diamond was called the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most beautiful diamond in the world. It was guarded by a high-tech security system, and a team of armed guards. No one could steal it, or so they thought. But someone did. Someone managed to bypass the security, to evade the guards, to break the glass, and to take the diamond. And no one saw them, no one heard them, no one knew who they were. They left no trace, no clue, no evidence. They vanished into the night, with the Star of Africa. And the mystery of the missing diamond began.
