He was exhausted of his existence. He was uninterested, unhappy, and discontented. He had a job he detested, a supervisor he loathed, and a partner he didn't cherish. He had no passion, no goal, no value. He felt like he was squandering his hours, his potential, his life. He desired to modify, he wished to escape, he desired to exist. He decided to leave his job, to end things with his partner, to dispose of his belongings, and to buy a direct pass to the opposite end of the world. He didn't know where he was going, he didn't know what he was performing, he didn't understand what he was searching for. He only realized that he had to go, that he had to investigate, that he had to uncover. He embarked on a voyage of a thousand distances, a trip of excitement, of challenge, of education, of progress, of transformation.
