First Love that Never Fades

Anna never forgot her first love, Leo. They met when they were both 16, at a summer camp. They spent every day together, laughing, talking, kissing. They promised to stay in touch, to wait for each other, to love each other forever. But life had other plans. They lost contact, they moved on, they married other people. Years later, they met again, by chance, at a reunion. They felt the same spark, the same connection, the same love. But they also felt the same pain, the same guilt, the same regret. They had to make a choice, between their past and their present, between their hearts and their minds, between their first love and their last.

Eva had always been fascinated by magic, but she never expected to find out that she was a witch. She had grown up in a normal family, in a normal town, with no signs of anything supernatural. But on her sixteenth birthday, everything changed. She received a mysterious package from her grandmother, who had died years ago. Inside was a leather-bound book with the words "The Book of Shadows" engraved on the cover. Eva opened it and felt a surge of power run through her veins. She realized that the book contained the secrets of her family's magical heritage, and that she was the last of a long line of powerful witches. But she also learned that she was not alone. There were others like her, and some of them wanted to use their magic for evil. Eva had to decide whether to embrace her destiny as a witch, or to reject it and live a normal life. But either way, she knew that her life would never be the same again.
