Behind the the purity of desire 100 poems of-The work “Analyzing Casual Conversation” by Suzanne Eggins and Diana Slade, first issued in 1997, establishes a methodical model for the analysis and depiction of casual conversation in English. The authors assert that notwithstanding its sometimes aimless look and seemingly unstructured content, casual conversation is a very structured undertaking and plays a critical part in the social building of reality. The publication works through authentic examples of casual conversations involving participants differing in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class¹². Pulling on understandings from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the work furnishes readers with the analytical skills to describe the strata of structure and critical interpretive models to clarify the ‘social work’ that goes on through chat.
