It was a shadowy and stormy night. The downpour was pouring down, and the wind was howling. In the middle of the town, there was a museum, where a priceless diamond was on show. The diamond was named the Star of Africa, and it was the biggest and most stunning diamond in the earth. It was secured by a advanced security mechanism, and a squad of weaponized guards. No one could rob it, or so they thought. But someone did. Somebody managed to circumvent the protection, to avoid the guards, to shatter the window, and to take the diamond. And no one saw them, no one overheard them, no one identified who they were. They left no trace, no hint, no testimony. They faded into the night, with the Star of Africa. And the enigma of the lost diamond began.
