It was a shadowy and tempestuous night. The rain was falling heavily, and the wind was howling. In the center of the metropolis, there was a museum, where a priceless diamond was on show. The diamond was known as the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most stunning diamond in the world. It was secured by a high-tech security system, and a group of armed guards. No one could pilfer it, or so they believed. But someone did. Someone succeeded to bypass the safeguard, to elude the watchmen, to shatter the glass, and to take the diamond. And no one saw them, no one listened to them, no one identified who they were. They exited no trace, no lead, no evidence. They faded into the night, with the African Star. And the enigma of the lost diamond commenced.
