Eva had always been captivated by the realm of magic, but she never anticipated that she would uncover her own sorcerous abilities. She had spent her childhood in a ordinary family, living in a unassuming town, devoid of any signs of the supernatural. However, on her sixteenth birthday, her life took an unexpected turn. A enigmatic package arrived, sent by her grandmother, who had departed years ago. Within the package lay an aged leather-bound book, its cover adorned with the inscription, "The Book of Shadows". As Eva opened the book, a torrent of magic coursed through her veins. She realized that the book held the arcane knowledge of her familys magical lineage, and that she was the last descendant of a long line of formidable witches. But she also discovered that she was not alone. There were others like her, individuals who possessed similar abilities, and some of them sought to wield their magic for evil purposes. Eva faced a pivotal decision: embrace her destiny as a witch and delve into the world of sorcery, or reject her newfound powers and continue living her life as she had always known it. Regardless of her choice, she knew that her life would forever be altered from that moment forward.

It was a shadowy and tempestuous night. The rain was falling heavily, and the breeze was howling. In the center of the town, there was an exhibition, where a precious diamond was on show. The diamond was called the African Star, and it was the largest and most beautiful diamond in the earth. It was protected by a high-tech security mechanism, and a group of weaponized guards. No one could steal it, or so they thought. But someone did. Someone managed to get around the protection, to elude the watchmen, to break the window, and to grab the diamond. And no one observed them, no one listened to them, no one knew who they were. They departed from no sign, no hint, no evidence. They vanished into the nightfall, with the Star of Africa. And the mystery of the lost diamond commenced.
