Schoolhouses, Courthouses, and Statehouses

2020-10-06 Eric A. Hanushek Improving public schools through performance-based funding Spurred by court rulings requiring states to increase public-school funding, the United States now spends more per student on K-12 education than almost any other country. Yet American students still achieve less than their foreign counterparts, their performance has been flat for decades, millions of them are failing, and poor and minority students remain far behind their more advantaged peers. In this book, Eric Hanushek and Alfred Lindseth trace the history of reform efforts and conclude that the principal focus of both courts and legislatures on ever-increasing funding has done little to improve student achievement. Instead, Hanushek and Lindseth propose a new approach: a performance-based system that directly links funding to success in raising student achievement. This system would empower and motivate educators to make better, more cost-effective decisions about how to run their schools, ultimately leading to improved student performance.

Here, they draw on their experience, as well as the best available research and data, to show why improving schools will require overhauling the way financing, incentives, and accountability work in public education.

Writing a synthesis paper involves pulling together information from various sources to show a comprehensive argument on a subject. Here are the stages to write a flawless outline for a synthesis paper:

1. Select a Appropriate Subject: Select a topic that aligns with your interests and the assignment requirements.
2. Carry out Thorough Research: Explore various sources, such as articles, books, and academic journals, to collect data.
3. Outline Your Format: Begin with an introduction that grabs the readers interest and states your argument – what your essay will argue. After that, plan what each of your body paragraphs will talk about. Be sure to include details from different sources.

4. Write Sections with Topic Sentences: Devote each paragraph to a specific sub-topic or source. Begin with a distinct topic sentence directly related to your thesis. Introduce the source you're combining and plan its key points. Support your arguments with evidence from the source, employing quotes, paraphrases, or summaries.
5. Review, Edit, and Proofread: Check your work for any errors or inconsistencies.
