At the Crossroads Inn, where the roads of reality intersected, travelers from parallel dimensions gathered to share tales of their divergent lives. Each doorway in the inn led to a different reality, and the innkeeper, a guardian of the Crossroads, ensured that the stories flowed seamlessly between worlds.

The morning sun painted the sky in hues of pink and gold as it climbed above the horizon, casting a warm glow over the sleepy town nestled between rolling hills. The air was crisp and invigorating, carrying with it the promise of a new day. In the heart of this quaint town, a young man named Jonathan awoke to the gentle melody of birdsong outside his window. His eyes fluttered open, adjusting to the soft light filtering through the curtains.

First Love that Never Fades

Anna never forgot her first love, Leo. They met when they were both 16, at a summer camp. They spent every day together, laughing, talking, kissing. They promised to stay in touch, to wait for each other, to love each other forever. But life had other plans. They lost contact, they moved on, they married other people. Years later, they met again, by chance, at a reunion. They felt the same spark, the same connection, the same love. But they also felt the same pain, the same guilt, the same regret. They had to make a choice, between their past and their present, between their hearts and their minds, between their first love and their last.
