It was a gloomy and stormy night. The drizzle was falling heavily, and the gale was howling. In the center of the metropolis, there was a exhibition, where a invaluable diamond was on display. The diamond was named the Star of Africa, and it was the biggest and most gorgeous diamond in the globe. It was protected by a advanced security mechanism, and a squad of weaponized guards. No one could pilfer it, or so they believed. But an individual did. Someone managed to circumvent the safeguard, to elude the watchmen, to shatter the window, and to take the diamond. And no one observed them, no one heard them, no one knew who they were. They exited no trace, no hint, no proof. They disappeared into the night, with the African Star. And the mystery of the lost diamond began.

Eva had always been captivated by the realm of magic, but she never imagined that she would uncover her own sorcerous abilities. She had spent her childhood in a typical family, living in a quaint town, devoid of any signs of the supernatural. However, on her sixteenth birthday, her life took an unexpected turn. A mysterious package arrived, sent by her grandmother, who had left this world years ago. Within the package lay an aged leather-bound book, its cover adorned with the inscription, "The Book of Shadows". As Eva opened the book, a torrent of magic coursed through her veins. She realized that the book held the secrets of her familys magical lineage, and that she was the last descendant of a long line of mighty witches. But she also discovered that she was not alone. There were others like her, individuals who possessed similar abilities, and some of them sought to wield their magic for malevolent purposes. Eva faced a pivotal decision: embrace her destiny as a witch and delve into the world of sorcery, or reject her newfound powers and continue living her life as she had always known it. Regardless of her choice, she knew that her life would forever be changed beyond recognition from that moment forward.
