Anna could never forget her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at an enchanting summer camp. They were utterly smitten, spending every day laughing, engaging in deep conversations, and sharing stolen kisses. Their bond was solid, and they vowed to keep in touch, to wait for each other, and to love each other forever. But life, as it often does, had a different path in store for them. They lost track of each other, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the whirlwind of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their unbreakable connection. At a chance encounter, at a sentimental reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the flame of their first love rekindled. The same undeniable attraction that had drawn them together years ago was still unmistakable. They felt the same thrill that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the burden of their past. Their emotions swirled for the unconditional love they had shared, but their minds grappled with the complexity of their current lives. They were caught in a tug-of-war, torn between the passion of their past and the stability and security of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a life-altering choice. Would they choose the all-consuming passion of their first love, risking the unknown that lay ahead, or would they hold onto the security of their current lives, forever wondering what could have been? Only time would tell if their unbreakable bond would overcome the challenges.

He had seen it before, in the frightening news reports, in the meticulous police sketches, in the haunted faces of the victims. It was the infamous serial killer that had been terrorizing the city for what seemed like an eternity. And Sam was the killers next victim.
