He was tired of his existence. He was dull, depressed, and unsatisfied. He had a job he hated, a manager he despised, and a significant other he didn't love. He had no passion, no goal, no significance. He sensed like he was squandering his hours, his potential, his existence. He wanted to change, he desired to flee, he desired to survive. He chose to leave his job, to split up with his significant other, to sell his stuff, and to buy a single pass to the opposite end of the globe. He didn't know where he was proceeding, he didn't know what he was performing, he didn't understand what he was searching for. He only realized that he had to leave, that he had to discover, that he had to find out. He set out on a trip of a thousand distances, a trip of excitement, of challenge, of knowledge, of development, of change.
