"Bellman & Black" is a novel by Diane Setterfield, a British author known for her bestselling novel, "The Thirteenth Tale". The story revolves around the character of William Bellman, who as a boy commits a small cruel act that seems to have unforeseen and terrible consequences. The killing of a rook with his catapult is soon forgotten amidst the riot of boyhood games. However, as he grows up and has a family of his own, he seems to be a man blessed by fortune until tragedy strikes. A stranger in black comes into his life, and William starts to wonder if all his happiness is about to be eclipsed. In a desperate bid to save the one precious thing he has left, he enters into a rather strange bargain, with an even stranger partner, to found a decidedly macabre business. And thus, Bellman & Black is born.

It was the year 23, and the globe stood on the edge of conflict. The U.S. and China, the two global powers, were locked in a fierce rivalry, vying for assets, power, and supremacy. They had both engineered high-tech armaments, like lasers, unmanned aerial vehicles, and satellites, that could strike anywhere, any moment. They had also secretly constructed orbital stations, which can fire nuclear missiles, which can destroy the planet. They were both ready to use these weapons, if ever required. But they were not the only ones. There was a 3rd force, a secret power, which had been monitoring them, waiting for them, getting ready for them. They were extraterrestrials, and they had come to stop them. They had arrived to save the world, or to finish it. They had arrived to start the galactic wars that changed history.

He was tired of his existence. He was uninterested, sad, and unfulfilled. He had a job he despised, a supervisor he despised, and a partner he didn't adore. He had no zeal, no goal, no meaning. He believed like he was misusing his moment, his potential, his life. He wished to change, he desired to flee, he desired to survive. He resolved to leave his employment, to break up with his partner, to dispose of his stuff, and to acquire a single ticket to the other side of the world. He didn't understand where he was proceeding, he didn't know what he was carrying out, he didn't know what he was looking for. He only realized that he had to go, that he had to investigate, that he had to find out. He set out on a trip of a thousand distances, a trip of excitement, of difficulty, of knowledge, of progress, of transformation.
