Based on his own experience as pastor of dying and of transformed churches, the author gives practical advice to church leaders concerning what they must do and what they must become for the church to become vibrant, energetic, and fun again. He explains the necessity of spiritual and organizational changes and the pain endured in making them.

How to Empty a Church: The Manual John S. Oldfield 2021-05-24 Many have pontificated about church growth, telling church planters and pastors how to increase the number of attendees and members. Most have spoken authentically from inspiring experiences, and what they’ve recommended has worked . . . at least for some. But what about advice on how to reduce those numbers, how to empty those pews? This "manual" provides just that, and its suggestions don't emanate from an ivory tower; they, too, are based on real-life experiences. The insights and guidelines of How to Empty a Church may be expressed tongue-in-cheek, but they're not fictional; they reflect the history of an actual congregation. Fasten your seatbelt; it's going to be a bumpy--but worthwhile--ride!

The X-Manual Peter J. Bellini 2022-04-07 The title of the book, The X-Manual, is taken from the word exousia, from the subtitle. It is the Greek word for authority. The word is used throughout the New Testament. For our purposes, it is used to express the divine authority or right to cast out demons—"I have given you authority [exousia] to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you" (Luke 10:19 NIV). Jesus gives believers authority to cast out demons. This book is about spiritual authority over evil. The X-Manual is a practical "how to" handbook for clergy and laity on deliverance and exorcism. One reason I wrote the book is because so few understand and/or operate effectively in deliverance ministry. Nowhere is the church more inadequate or excessive than in deliverance ministry. The X-Manual contains specific time-tested biblical instructions on selecting and training a deliverance team, pre-deliverance work, the deliverance session, post-deliverance work, and other useful tools like the C1-13 instrument that helps determine if one needs deliverance. Deliverance is essential to the church’s New Testament healing and evangelism ministry. It is time for the church to walk in the authority and power that Christ gave us to set the captives free!

Springs of Living Water David Samuel Young 2008 David S. Young approaches the need for renewal with a spiritual thrust and an active servant leader style. He gives systematic help in how to be a healthy church with an urgent mission. This manual helps a church cultivate its spiritual life, train leaders, and focus efforts in ministries which express its identity and call. Rather than the pastor working solo, a renewal team is trained that gets the entire congregation involved. The team works with the church to look at its strengths and discover new life. Rather than using a diagnostic model of church renewal, find out what is wrong and fix it, the process uses an affirmative model, find out what is right and builds upon it. This book is written from David Young's experience in pastoring in the local church, teaching in seminaries, leading cluster work, writing two books in the field, and keeping one foot planted in a church working on renewal. Young has learned, developed, lived, taught and tested this model.

Divine Renovation James Mallon 2014 Highly acclaimed for his work with parish renewal and the New Evangelization, Fr. James Mallon shares with us the many ways for bringing our parishes to life. Through humorous and colorful stories, Mallon challenges us to rethink our models of parish life, from membership-based communities to assemblies of disciples of Jesus who proclaim and share the good news with all peoples. Accessible and engaging, Divine Renovation turns to the Church's many writings on evangelization and mission so as to articulate practical ways for injecting new life into our parishes. Pastors and parish ministers will be inspired by this book and turn to it for many years to come."

Christian Manual Raney Antoine 2007-12 Our nature as we are born, is sinful, and prone to evil Eph. 2:3, so in order to be partakers of the divine nature of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we must be renewed to His moral nature, His views, feelings, thoughts, purposes, principles of action, and His way of Christian living. God's desire is that we would be likened to His image; and this resemblance will increase more and more as we seek to learn more about the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit through the Word of God. The "Christian Manual" provides an introduction to help train God's people for everyday Christian living. For the prospective new Christian, Church Leader, Minister or Elder (appointed or who has never been trained), this manual provides scripture based information regarding biblical principals for living in the image of Christ. Your studies will initiate a strong spiritual foundation and forge a covenant to study, pray, and grow. Other than the Word of God, there is no one book that entails all information needed to prepare Christians to live a life that ´s pleasing to God. This manual was written to cover many different areas and aspects of Christian maturity. It is designed to be a user-friendly tool to aid new, seasoned, and senior Christians to flow in your gifts. 2Timothy 2:15 says "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." We believe that prayerfully, this manual will serve as an introductory tool for your everyday walk in ministry. It is designed to be used with your bible and provides scripture based information regarding biblical principals. It is intended to initiate a strong spiritual foundation and forge a covenant to study, pray, and grow. It should be used for individual study, under the direction of a mentor or instructor, or can also be used in a group setting. This manual entail: □ Terms and Language Associated with the Christian Faith □ Responsibilities of the Disciple or Follower of Jesus Christ □ Fundamentals of Church Etiquette □ Complicated Doctrinal Issues □ Books of the Bible □ Basic Tenets of the Christian Faith Also included are detailed examinations of the names, titles, and characteristics of God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. Christian Manual promises to engage, enlighten and enhance your personal study of God's Word. Examining this information will ignite your spirit with a new sense of excitement, purpose, and motivation for living an empowered life according to God's Word. As we meditate on 2 Timothy 2:15, let's consider the following three things: (1) Reflect on the amazing advances made since your period of infancy. You could neither walk, nor talk, nor creep. You did not know that a candle or stove would burn you if you put your finger there. You didn't know to hold a rattle, the sound, or where the sound came. Now consider your maturity at age twenty, thirty and forty. (2) Reflect on your limited powers of learning about God or his works. Unlike physical maturity, spiritual maturity can only come through your acquainting yourself with God through His Word. With diligently studying the Word and with revelation through the Holy Spirit, God will bless us with Christian maturity. James 1:22 says "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves." (3) Reflect on the time you have to grow in knowledge, and in holiness, and in conformity to God. We may attempt to climb the hill of knowledge, and having gone a few steps - while the top is still lost in the clouds - we lie down and die. We look at a few things; become acquainted with a few elementary principles; make a little progress in virtue, and then all our studies and efforts are suspended, and "we fly away." In the future world we shall have an "eternity" befo

Disciple III Remember Who You Are: Study Manual Richard B. Wilke 2010-09-01 The Disciple III Remember Who You Are: Study Manual combines direction and information enabling study of the text - the Bible. Two titles in the commentary section of the manual reflect ideas central to the prophets and Paul's letters. "The Word of the Lord" picks up a familiar phrase from the prophets - a clear statement of their calling: They spoke (and speak) for God. Each member of the group needs a study manual and a Bible. The Bible is the text for the study and the study manual will guide group members in their study and preparation for the weekly group session. The study manual also includes suggestions for individual research and study-related activities. Space is provided for taking notes while reading Scripture, for recording thoughts and questions arising out of daily study, and for notes during the weekly group session. The titles of the sessions along with theme words and theme verses, and major persons, events, and topics will set the sequence of the biblical story in the minds of the participants. The principal Scripture for each session follows the chronological movement of the biblical story. Disciple III Remember Who You Are is the third study in the four-phase DISCIPLE program. The driving idea in this study is the connection between memory and identity as the people of God. The word You in the title is meant to be heard both in its singular form (the individual) and its plural form (the community). We are a community of memory. Participants in this 32 week study will read the major and minor Old Testament prophets, with the exception of Daniel, and will read the thirteen Letters traditionally attributed to Paul. To establish the historical context in which the prophets spoke for God, daily reading assignments draw also on the books of Deuteronomy through Chronicles. Several themes weave their way through the study - the call to remember; the call to repentance; the need for renewed vision; and the place of community. The prophets and Paul are continually calling hearers and readers back to their God and to a sense of who they are as a people"set apart." Commitment and Time Involved 32 week study Three and one-half to four hours of independent study each week (40 minutes daily for leaders and 30 minutes daily for group members) in preparation for weekly group meetings. Attendance at weekly 2.5 hour meetings

Faith Shaping Ministry Paul E. Hoffman 2013-09-16 What happens after a congregation welcomes new Christians into its ministry? Building on the work of the first volume in this series, Faith Forming Faith, Paul Hoffman interprets how a congregation that intentionally practices baptism and its renewal is itself re-formed. Pastors, teachers, lay leaders, students of ministry, and people in the pew: all will find the compelling story of the ministry of Phinney Ridge Lutheran Church in Seattle, Washington--one of our nation's most secular cities--to be an inspiring and practical primer for renewal. Who would have thought? Bringing others to the waters of baptism transforms those already at home in the congregation. In fact, this intentional spiritual practice completely transforms the parish and the lives of God's people. There are new discoveries to be made in the ancient treasures of the Church as these gifts are shared with those hungering and thirsting for a place at God's table.

Divine Renovation Beyond the Parish Fr. James Mallon 2020-04-20 The world is hungering for the fruit of a dynamic Church that has embraced her missionary identity, but what does it really mean to be a missionary Church? Grounded in Scripture and Sacred Tradition, Fr. Mallon offers an analysis of the challenges the Church is facing, along with practical tools that will support parish and diocesan leaders in bringing about significant renewal. Most importantly, he addresses the critical interface between a missionary parish and its diocese, essential to bearing lasting fruit. "Fr. Mallon understands what it takes to transform a mediocre parish into a dynamic, missionary one, and he understands that parishes need diocesan leadership to transform the Church as a whole. I pray that every bishop in the Church will absorb this message of love, and that, by the movement of the Holy Spirit, it will bring hordes of people to Jesus and his Church." —Patrick Lencioni, cofounder of The Amazing Parish and author of The Five Dysfunctions of a Team

A New Way to Be Church Jack Jezreel 2018 "If the Church is ever going to actualise its full potency as a force for good it will happen only when the parish is at the centre of the work of compassion and justice, and the work of compassion and justice is at the centre of the parish."What is the future of the American Church? Building on the legacy of the Catholic Church's robust historical witness, the inspiration of Pope Francis, and his own experiences as parish minister, Catholic Worker member, and founder of JustFaith Ministries, Jack Jezreel presents a unique vision for renewing parish life.Promoting an outward, mission-oriented identity that connects evangelisation, faith formation, service, spirituality, and social justice, he argues that a true "Vatican II" parish knows that ministry is done by everyone, everywhere-- not exclusively by clergy and not primarily on parish property. He ties this to Pope Francis's vision of a community of missionary disciples and the call of "encounter."The book is leavened by Jezreel's reflections on scripture and his own personal experience of family, parish ministry, service, and work for social justice. He ends the book with a practical guide for implementing these principles in your own parish.

The Sacred Conversation Joseph Mele 2013 A great preacher understands the power of God's Word and knows how to communicate that power in the most effective way possible. With The Sacred Conversation: The Art of Catholic Preaching and the New Evangelization priests will be renewed in their mission to preach the Gospel and equipped to do so with practical advice from Fr. Joseph Mele. Fr. Mele surveys the current norms in Catholic preaching and supplies helpful background on the Church' s most recent teaching on the subject. Paying special attention to the needs of the lay faithful, Fr. Mele then provides priests with the "nuts and bolts" of homiletics to ensure their preaching penetrates the hearts of those in the pews. An essential text for priests and seminarians. About the Author Fr. Joseph Mele is Vicar General in the Diocese of Pittsburgh, director of formation at St. Paul Seminary, and director of post-ordination formation. He graduated from St. Francis College and St. Francis Seminary, Loretto, Pennsylvania and was ordained on May 5, 1973. He received a master' s degree from Duquesne University and his doctorate in philosophy in 2008. Fr. Mele is the author of The Sacred Conversation: The Art of Catholic Preaching and the New Evangelization. Endorsements "As one responsible for forming our future priest-evangelizers for the Church in the United States, I would highly encourage seminarians to read Fr. Mele' s excellent work. How often we preachers get frustrated because of our human limitations inpreaching. Fr. Mele gives us excellent direction on how to keep our preaching fresh, lively, and meaningful. As a seminary rector, I will encourage my seminarians to read this excellent reflection on preaching." --Fr. James Wehner, Author, Rector-President of Notre Dame Seminar "The very core of the vocation of the priest is to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This has been done well and not-so-well throughout the years. Fr. Mele lays out the history and the problems of Catholic preaching and then offers some very practical ways for the preacher to be God' s Instrument of the Good News. Read this book and become the Instrument God is calling you to be!" --Fr. Larry Richards, Author, radio host, and founder of The Reason for Our Hope Foundation "Preaching for the new evangelization! From his experience aspastor and seminary rector, and drawing upon many years of responsibility for the pre-ordination and post-ordination formation of priests, Fr. Mele truly understands the challenges and the urgency of effectively preaching the Word of God in the twenty-first century." --Fr. Thomas Acklin, Author, Rector and Professor of Theology, St. Vincent Seminar "This is more than a manual for good techniques. It' s a recovery of the very purpose of liturgical preaching: to guide us into the divine mysteries. Fr. Mele has produced a manifesto for a Church alive with grace." --Mike Aquilina, Author of numerous bestselling books, including The Fathers of the Church "It is not often that a book on homiletics can be recommended for a general audience as well as the priest and deacons meant to learn from it. But I am giving Fr. Joseph Mele' s The Sacred Conversation to friends that will never provide a homily in their lives. His steps for a ' reform of the reform' of Catholic liturgical practices are inspiring to those of us who are in the pews, not just the pulpits." --Robert P. Lockwood, Author, national columnist for Our Sunday Visitor

Lord, Renew Your Wonders Damian Stayne 2017-09-01 At the beginning of the Second Vatican Council, Blessed Pope John XXIII offered a prayer asking the Holy Spirit to "Renew your wonders in our time, as though for a new Pentecost." The rediscovery of the charismatic gifts by ordinary Catholics throughout the world was an answer to that prayer. Damian Stayne, who is known internationally for his healing ministry, shows readers how the spiritual gifts of prophecy, healing, and deliverance were used by Jesus, the early Church, and the saints—and why we need them operating in the Church today. He provides not only amazing stories of God's presence and work in our time but also a host of practical instructions on how to grow in these gifts. This book is both inspiring and a challenge to Catholics to be open to the gifts of the Spirit in order to bring others to Christ.

Preaching Towards Church Revitalization and Renewal! Tom Cheyney 2015-08-25 While leading both church planting and church revitalization efforts, I found many more helpful resources for church planters than for leaders trying to turn a church around! This is especially true as it relates to messages designed to challenge and inspire churches in need of revitalization. Tom Cheyney and Larry Wynn have drawn from their passion and experience and given the church revitalizer a true gift in the pages of this book!Lee Kricher, Author, For a New Generation: A Practical Guide For Revitalizing Your Church Pastor New Generation ChurchPittsburg, PAThe impressive combination of Tom Cheyney and Larry Wynn have teamed up to address one of the most critical areas of Church Revitalization, that of preaching for revitalization. Both men have been working in the area of church planting and church revitalization for many years and have something very important to say in an area nearly bereft of coverage. If pastors are going to address church revitalization, it should begin with their most effective medium - their public proclamation. All Rights Reserved Your First 120 Days In Church Revitalization And Renewal Tom Cheyney 2020-12-15 Your First 120 Days in church Revitalization and Renewal Amazon PageYou are initiating the beginning of your church's effort towards church revitalization. You are to be commended for the willingness to save a church from the pain of loss. There are all types of loses for declining churches. There is the loss of long-time church members who have either moved away or passed on. There is the loss of impact in one's community in which the church was planted to serve. Another loss is the mixture of all ages within your fellowship to what now leans further towards the elderly than the young. But perhaps the biggest loss is when your church has not done anything to bring about renewal and eventually it is given away to a church planter which is stranger because the membership and leadership within the church waited too long to act. As you look in the mirror ask the Lord how you are going to be the catalyst for revitalization in the dear church you serve. Beginning the process of revitalization and renewal is a critical time for the church revitalizer. Whether you realize it or not the clock is ticking and the key decisions you make in your initial one hundred and twenty days is imperative. While you have some time on your side might I encourage you to begin day one displaying to your lay church leaders that you are there to lead them out of their demise and towards a better future. You are there to make a difference and if you do not see yourself up to the task then you should begin developing your exit plan.This book on your first 120 days in church revitalization and renewal is deigned to challenge you to release old and outdated theories and methodologies. We will continue to declare that the early days where you transition into this new role of church revitalizer is critical and challenging. But if you begin well you have established a solid foundation of you as the leader, the team you will employ to help you with renewal, and the success you will have going forward.We should all face it that becoming the leader of a church revitalization effort for the local church is a big challenge. It is a chance for you as the church revitalizer and for the church in need of revitalization to make a fresh start and develop a new vision for a better future. But for you as the one called to lead the church out of decline, it is also a time for intense vulnerability. Making unwise slipups and blunders are missteps you cannot afford at the beginning of your journey. What you do during the opening one hundred and twenty days of your revitalization efforts can either position you for success of jeopardize your leadership which will ultimately lead to failure. This new book seeks to identify for you the potential landmines and potholes you will encounter and show you how to avoid them. It goes without saying but probably needs to be stated nevertheless that you as the church revitalizer need some early wins in order for the majority of the church to follow your leadership. You have been given a great opportunity by the Lord to seize the opportunity to bring renewal to your church. What you do during the first 120 days sets the stage for the impossible dream to become the possible dream of revitalization and renewal. Wrestle with these pages and use them as a guide for initiating church revitalization and renewal.

Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic Matthew Kelly 2014-12 As human beings we are constantly engaging and disengaging in everything we do. We engage and disengage at work, in marriage, as parents, in our quest for health and well-being, in personal finances, environmentally, politically, and, of course, we engage or disengage spiritually. If you walk into any Catholic church next Sunday and look around, you will discover that some people are highly engaged, others are massively disengaged, and the majority are somewhere in between. Why? What is the difference between highly engaged Catholics and disengaged Catholics? Answering this question is essential to the future of the Catholic Church. If we truly want to engage Catholics and reinvigorate parish life, we must first discover what drives engagement among Catholics. Matthew Kelly explores this question in his groundbreaking new book, and the simplicity of what he discovers will amaze you. Four things make the difference between highly engaged Catholics and disengaged Catholics: the four signs of a Dynamic Catholic. Whether you are ready to let God take your spiritual life to the next level or want to help reinvigorate your parish, The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic promises to take you on a journey that will help you live out the genius of Catholicism in your everyday life.
