his work, presented at the San Francisco Art Institute and the Asian Art Museum of San Francisco. Villa was trained at the San Francisco Art Institute in the 1950s as an abstract expressionist, and over time he transformed his practice to address issues of ethnic and cultural diversity. He concurrently assumed a leadership role in 'Third World' and 'multicultural' international art movements, and his large-scale works reference non-Western traditions, including tattoo, scarification, ritual, and ceremony. He was also an important theorist, curator, and organizer of public forums that he called 'actions.' This book traces the arc of his career from 1969 until his death in 2013, with emphasis on his feathered works from the 1970s, as well as later works that address aspects of the history of Filipinos in the United States. It illuminates the social and cultural roots--and global importance--of Villa's art and teaching career as he sought to forge a new kind of art-world inclusion that reflected his own

TIP 35: Enhancing Motivation for Change in Substance Use Disorder Treatment (Updated 2019)

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services 2019-11-19

Motivation is key to substance use behavior change.

Counselors can support clients' movement toward positive changes in their substance use by identifying and enhancing motivation that already exists. Motivational approaches are based on the principles of person-centered counseling.

Counselors' use of empathy, not authority and power, is key to enhancing clients' motivation to change. Clients are experts in their own recovery from SUDs. Counselors should engage them in collaborative partnerships. Ambivalence about change is normal.

Resistance to change is an expression of ambivalence about change, not a client trait or characteristic. Downloaded from

Come scrivono i bambini se la scuola è digitale: un caso di studio in one laptop per child Francesca Scenini 2011 La literacy è prerequisito della democrazia, in quanto essenziale alla partecipazione attiva, piena e consapevole del soggetto alla vita sociale. Per garantirne una consistente diffusione, le pratiche di lettura e scrittura sono, da sempre, al centro del sistema di insegnamento-apprendimento formale. Se non decresce il loro valore e la loro utilità al progresso individuale e sociale, le pratiche di lettura e scrittura sono però dinamiche e mutevoli nella loro essenza, in quanto necessariamente influenzate dal contesto, che è fluido e multiforme, perché interessato dai movimenti della storia, dalle influenze sociali, dall'evoluzione della tecnologia.

It introduces the concept of identification thoroughly and clearly and discusses it as a process of trying to isolate variation that has a causal interpretation. Subjects include heavy emphasis on data-generating processes and causal diagrams. Concepts are demonstrated with a heavy emphasis on graphical intuition and the question of what we do to data.
