A Donkey Named Rico Jack Jessup 2001-01-01 Born a Spanish Jew in the fifteenth century, Ben had many hidden talents that would come to the fore early in his life. At a young age, his inquiring mind and amazing linguistic skills set him apart from his peers and his only real friend and confidant was his donkey, Rico, being the recipient of his innermost thoughts on love and life... When his family became part of the Jewish exodus from Spain in 1492, ten year old Ben found a new kind of freedom in Turkey and his quick wits stood him in good stead for a new life which was to bring him much heartache but also boundless joy.

Le Grand temps Mireille Calle-Gruber 2004 "Je ne connais d'autres sentiers de la création que ceux ouverts par le cheminement même de l'écriture". C'est ce trajet infini de Claude Simon vers la nécessité poétique du texte captant les choses du monde, que la lecture ici entend retracer. Car l'œuvre se révèle le lieu d'une impressionnante réflexion sur l'expérience de l'humain - être-à-la-mort, être au monde et au temps. Aux temps pluriels. Considérant l'ensemble des livres, on verra ainsi comment l'écrivain donne formes à l'informe : à ces " lamelles de temps " que sont les mots passés au crible du récit. Le Grand Temps désigne le paradoxe que secrète l'écriture : la monumentalité de l'Histoire et de l'Oubli dans notre siècle de violences ; l'urgence d'une remémoration et d'une reconstitution fragmentaires ; et, pour ce faire, le recours à une autobiographie qui fait le portait d'une mémoire.

Barthélémy Toguo Philippe Dagen 2020-11-30 Barthélémy Toguo is a multiple disciplinary artist whose work addresses migration, colonialism, race, exile and displacement. Volatile Oil Crops R. Hay 1995-06-08 Volatile (essential) oil crops yield a wide range of products - fresh and dried herbs, oils and oil components and various oleoresins. Changing lifestyles in developed countries have led to dramatic increases in demand for these products, particularly over the last decade. More varied use has been made of oils and herbs in cooking, and oil components are now being regarded as safe alternatives to synthetic food additives and crop protection substances. The surge in demand for these produces has encouraged a number of temperate and mediterranean countries to evaluate a range of volatile oil-bearing species as alternative crops. This has resulted in a rapid expansion in the scientific and technical literature on culinary and medicinal herbs. Volatile Oil Crops draws much of this literature together for the first time. It reviews the basic botany, physiology and biochemistry of the major species and then analyses the genetics of oil composition. The effects of oils on a wide range of organisms are discussed and the book surveys the biotechnological methods which can be employed in the laboratory production of oils. It concludes with a full analysis of the world trade in the products of volatile oils.

The Equality of the Human Races Joseph-Anténor Firmin 2002 "This is the first paperback edition of the only English-language translation of the Haitian scholar Antnor Firmin's The Equality of the Human Races, a foundational text in critical anthropology first published in 1885 when anthropology was just emerging as a specialized field of study. Marginalized for its "radical" position that the human races were equal, Firmin's lucid and persuasive treatise was decades ahead of its time. Arguing that the equality of the races could be demonstrated through a positivist scientific approach, Firmin challenged racist writings and the dominant views of the day. Translated by Asselin Charles and framed by Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban's substantial introduction, this rediscovered text is an important contribution to contemporary scholarship in anthropology, pan-African studies, and colonial and postcolonial studies."
