Many Gifts 1b Mary Cairo 2016 Unit Overview: In this unit, students identify some of the roles, relationships, and responsibilities they have in their home, school, parish, and community in order to understand their changing sense of self. The unit helps them find out how and why changes in circumstances might affect people's roles, relationships, and responsibilities. They will also develop an understanding that all people and the environment should be treated with respect. Students will examine these concepts through the lens of their Catholic faith, appreciating that although we are always the same person before God, in some ways we are always changing. -- page 2.
