She had a dream. She wished to be a pop star. She wanted to perform, to groove, to entertain, to delight. She wished to be well-known, to be cherished, to be revered. She desired to have it all, recognition, wealth, prestige. She labored hard, she trained, she auditioned, she amazed. She got a contract, a music contract, a manager, a director. She made an CD, a hit, a phenomenon. She became a celebrity, a famous person, a sensation. She had it all, followers, wealth, awards. She was on top of the world, she was experiencing her goal. But she also had a dark side. She had a mystery, a issue, an addiction. She started to fall apart, to make mistakes, to create controversy. She faced condemnation, repercussions, litigations. She gave up her followers, her fortune, her accolades. She fell from grace, she became a joke, a disaster. She forfeited it all, her fame, her fortune, her honor. She was the rise and downfall of a performer.
