Creating a synthesis paper involves pulling together information from various sources to present a well-rounded debate on a subject. Here are the stages to write a flawless outline for a synthesis paper:

1. Choose a Appropriate Topic: Select a topic that matches with your interests and the assignment requirements.
2. Conduct Comprehensive Research: Investigate different sources, including articles, books, and academic journals, to collect information.
3. Outline Your Format: Begin with an introduction that catches the readers attention and presents your argument – what your paper will argue. After that, outline what each of your body paragraphs will talk about. Be sure to include information from various sources.
4. Compose Sections with Topic Lines: Dedicate each paragraph to a unique sub-topic or source. Begin with a clear topic sentence straight linked to your argument. Present the source youre synthesizing and outline its key points. Back up your arguments with proof from the source, using quotes, paraphrases, or summaries.
5. Review, Edit, and Proofread: Check your work for any errors or inconsistencies.

It was a dark and stormy night. The drizzle was falling heavily, and the breeze was roaring. In the center of the metropolis, there was a museum, where a precious diamond was on show. The diamond was known as the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most beautiful diamond in the earth. It was secured by a advanced security setup, and a squad of weaponized guards. No one could steal it, or so they assumed. But someone did. Somebody managed to bypass the protection, to avoid the sentinels, to break the glass, and to take the diamond. And no one noticed them, no one listened to them, no one recognized who they were. They departed from no sign, no hint, no evidence. They disappeared into the night, with the African Star. And the enigma of the lost diamond started.

Alice was perpetually fascinated by the ancient mansion perched at the end of the street. Stories of its mysterious owner, who never ventured out of his secluded abode, had always piqued her curiosity. Whispers circulated about his identity, ranging from a recluse to a genius or even a madman, depending on the source. Alice yearned to unravel the truth behind these tales and uncover the secrets concealed within the bolted door on the second floor. Driven by an irresistible urge to delve into the mansions mysteries, Alice embarked on a daring escapade. With a heart pounding with a mix of anticipation, she stealthily ventured into the mansions grounds, her senses heightened as she approached the restricted door on the second floor. Standing before the threshold, her hand trembling slightly as she reached for the doorknob, Alice braced herself for the revelations that awaited her beyond. With a deep breath, she turned the knob, the door creaking open to unveil a sight that would forever alter her perception of the world.

He was weary of his life. He was bored, unhappy, and discontented. He had a employment he detested, a manager he despised, and a partner he didn't adore. He had no zeal, no purpose, no value. He felt like he was misusing his hours, his potential, his existence. He wished to alter, he wanted to run away, he wanted to exist. He decided to leave his job, to split up with his girlfriend, to sell his belongings, and to purchase a single pass to the opposite end of the globe. He didn't know where he was going, he didn't know what he was carrying out, he didn't understand what he was looking for. He only knew that he had to go, that he had to investigate, that he had to uncover. He embarked on a voyage of a thousand kilometers, a voyage of thrill, of obstacle, of learning, of progress, of change.
