Presenting a thesis title entails a process where you demonstrate and elucidate your intended research to a committee of evaluators. This is a typical practice in many institutions where groups are established to assess and review research titles before they are permitted to go ahead with the real research. The defense normally consists of a question-and-answer session intended at showing the relevance of the research you have picked and deciding if you, as a researcher, are actually able of accomplishing it.

Woody Woodpecker is an animated character that initially appeared in theatrical short films produced by the Walter Lantz Studio and released by Universal Pictures between 1940 and 19721. The character was developed in 1940 by Lantz and storyboard artist Ben "Bugs" Hardaway, who had prior set the groundwork for two other crazy characters, Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck1. Woody Woodpecker's character and design transformed over the years, from an insane bird with an unusually garish design to a more refined-looking and acting character.

The stories center around Woody's mischievous and often disorderly pranks, his efforts to solve problems, and his relations with other characters such as Andy Panda, Chilly Willy, Winnie Woodpecker, Knothead, Splinter, Buzz Buzzard, and many others2. Woody Woodpecker cartoons were initially broadcast on television in 1957 under the title The Woody Woodpecker Show.

In besides to the original series, there have been several spin-offs and adaptations. For example, "Wonder Toons: Woody Woodpecker And Many More" is a collection of Woody Woodpecker cartoons together with other animations.

It was a dark and stormy night. The rain was pouring down, and the breeze was whistling. In the center of the city, there was a gallery, where a priceless diamond was on show. The diamond was called the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most beautiful diamond in the world. It was guarded by a advanced security mechanism, and a group of weaponized guards. No one could steal it, or so they believed. But an individual did. An individual succeeded to bypass the security, to elude the watchmen, to smash the pane, and to steal the diamond. And no one saw them, no one heard them, no one knew who they were. They departed from no mark, no clue, no proof. They faded into the darkness, with the Star of Africa. And the mystery of the vanished diamond started.
