The writers contend that in spite of its sometimes aimless look and ostensibly unstructured substance, casual conversation is a very structured task and performs a vital part in the social formation of reality. The publication works through genuine examples of casual conversations involving participants varying in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class<sup>12</sup>. Pulling on perspectives from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the publication furnishes readers with the analytical skills to describe the layers of structure and critical interpretive frameworks to elucidate the ‘social work’ that happens on through chat.
