Automator for Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard

2007-12-27 Ben Waldie Automator for Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard: Visual QuickStart Guide uses a combination of task-based instruction and strong visuals to teach Macintosh users how to automate repetitive, time-consuming tasks with the Automator application that is included with Mac OS X 10.5 Leopard. Automator comes with many useful actions for lots of popular Apple applications. Each action performs a single specific task, such as removing an empty playlist from iTunes, or adding attachments to a Mail message. The real power of Automator lies in mixing and matching these actions to perform exactly the job you need them to, in a string of actions known as a workflow. Author Ben Waldie introduces readers to how Automator works, and then helps them assemble and use Automator workflows. This book covers the major updates to Automator that are part of Mac OS X 10.5 (Leopard), including a variety of highly anticipated features, such as recording, looping, and the use of variables within workflows. These features make Automator more flexible and powerful than before, greatly increasing its appeal and interest to any Mac user looking to become more efficient. Both beginning users who want a thorough introduction to Automator and more advanced users looking for a convenient reference will find what they need here in straightforward language, clear steps, and practical tips.

Journey of a Thousand Miles

He was weary of his life. He was bored, sad, and unsatisfied. He had a work he despised, a boss he loathed, and a partner he didn't cherish. He had no passion, no aim, no significance. He felt like he was misusing his hours, his possibility, his being. He desired to modify, he wanted to escape, he desired to survive. He resolved to quit his job, to end things with his partner, to dispose of his stuff, and to purchase a single ticket to the opposite end of the earth. He didn't realize where he was going, he didn't realize what he was doing, he didn't know what he was seeking. He only knew that he had to go, that he had to discover, that he had to find out. He set out on a journey of a thousand distances, a trip of excitement, of difficulty, of learning, of growth, of transformation.
