The scholars assert that despite its sometimes aimless appearance and apparently unstructured substance, casual conversation is a highly structured undertaking and plays a vital part in the social building of reality. The work works through genuine examples of casual conversations involving participants diverging in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class¹². Deriving on insights from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the work equips readers with the analytic skills to depict the strata of structure and critical interpretive structures to clarify the 'social work' that goes on through chat.
