The writers assert that despite its occasionally aimless appearance and apparently unstructured substance, casual conversation is a very structured activity and plays a vital role in the social formation of reality. The work works through genuine instances of casual conversations involving participants differing in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class12. Deriving on insights from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the work furnishes readers with the analytic skills to describe the layers of structure and critical interpretive structures to clarify the ‘social work’ that
