It was a shadowy and tempestuous night. The rain was pouring down, and the gale was roaring. In the middle of the city, there was a gallery, where a invaluable diamond was on exhibit. The diamond was called the African Star, and it was the biggest and most stunning diamond in the world. It was protected by a advanced security system, and a squad of equipped guards. No one could rob it, or so they believed. But an individual did. Somebody managed to circumvent the security, to evade the watchmen, to smash the window, and to grab the diamond. And no one observed them, no one overheard them, no one identified who they were. They exited no trace, no hint, no proof. They faded into the darkness, with the African Star. And the enigma of the vanished diamond commenced.
