It was a shadowy and stormy night. The downpour was falling heavily, and the breeze was whistling. In the middle of the metropolis, there was a exhibition, where a invaluable diamond was on exhibit. The diamond was known as the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most gorgeous diamond in the earth. It was secured by a advanced security system, and a team of armed guards. No one could rob it, or so they assumed. But an individual did. Someone managed to bypass the security, to evade the guards, to break the window, and to grab the diamond. And no one observed them, no one listened to them, no one identified who they were. They departed from no mark, no clue, no testimony. They vanished into the nightfall, with the African Star. And the riddle of the lost diamond started.
