Principles of Accounting Volume 1 - Financial Accounting

2019-04-11 Mitchell Franklin The text and images in this book are in grayscale. A hardback color version is available. Search for ISBN 9781680922929. Principles of Accounting is designed to meet the scope and sequence requirements of a two-semester accounting course that covers the fundamentals of financial and managerial accounting. This book is specifically designed to appeal to both accounting and non-accounting majors, exposing students to the core concepts of accounting in familiar ways to build a strong foundation that can be applied across business fields. Each chapter opens with a relatable real-life scenario for today's college student. Thoughtfully designed examples are presented throughout each chapter, allowing students to build on emerging accounting knowledge. Concepts are further reinforced through applicable connections to more detailed business processes. Students are immersed in the "why" as well as the "how" aspects of accounting in order to reinforce concepts and promote comprehension over rote memorization.

Introduction to Financial Accounting

2019 Henry Dauderis This textbook, originally by D. Annand and H. Dauderis, was intended for a first course in introductory financial accounting. It focuses on core introductory financial accounting topics that match pre-requisite requirements for students advancing to Intermediate Financial Accounting. A corporate approach is utilized versus beginning with a sole proprietorship emphasis and then converting to a corporate approach; this consistency throughout the book reduces confusion for the introductory student. This most recent revision by D. Marchand converted the text from IFRS to reflect the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of the United States (U.S. GAAP).

Financial Accounting

2013 David Alexander Financial Accounting is the ideal introductory book to anyone with little prior knowledge or new to this subject area. Its clear writing style and unique international focus builds on the success of the previous editions. This fully updated text uses the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as its framework to explain key concepts and practices while linking them with contemporary and real world examples from Europe, US and beyond. 'A hugely enjoyable and informative book with an international focus' Eleimon Gonis, University of the West of England, Bristol 'This book will be welcomed by students and academics alike. The text is easy to read and well laid out, the case studies are very helpful, and it is supplemented by a good range of quality supporting material' Christopher Coles, Department of Accounting and Finance, University of Glasgow What's new! Updated to be fully compliant with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) New coverage on ethics and corporate social accounting, creative accounting and groups as reporting entities Expanded discussion of revenue recognition and Islamic accounting and finance Numerous examples taken from European Union (EU) and the wider European Economic Area (EEA), showing the rules and practices of particular European countries or companies New end-of-chapter practice questions with guided solutions The text is ideal for undergraduates and MBA students worldwide, taking a first course in financial accounting. Visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/alexander to find valuable online resources for both students and lecturers, including links to relevant websites, additional practice questions, an instructor's manual and full set of power point slides. David Alexander is Professor Emeritus of Accounting at the University of Birmingham Business School, England. Christopher Nobes is Professor of Accounting at Royal Holloway, University of London, England. He is also Professor at the University of Sydney, and Adjunct Professor at the Norwegian Business School. From 1993 to 2001 he was a member of the board of the International Accounting Standards Committee.

Doing Business with Malta

2005 Marat Terterov Originally published in the pre-EU-accession period, this E-Book edition of Doing Business with Malta has been updated to take account of the post-accession changes to the legal and fiscal environment. It remains a definitive appraisal of the economic system and investment climate, including an examination of the legal structure and business regulation, information on the financial sector and unique best practice on all aspects of trading with and investing in Malta. As Malta's former áfortress economyá has now been greatly diversified, the guide also provides an overview of key sectors of trade and investment. Malta is a fast-growing economy, where GDP has been increasing at around 3.7 per cent annually since 1995.

Intermediate Financial Accounting

2020 Glenn Arnold "Intermediate Financial Accounting Volume 1 by G. Arnold and S. Kyle, developed in collaboration by Athabasca University and Lyryx, is intended for a first course in Intermediate Financial Accounting, and presumes that students have already completed one or two Introductory Financial Accounting courses. The textbook reflects current International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), such as IFRS 15 – Revenue from Contracts With Customers. This textbook provides a review of introductory accounting concepts and covers all topics essential to a first level Intermediate Accounting course: the conceptual framework and current landscape of financial reporting; statements of financial position; comprehensive income; cash flows and shareholders' equity; cash and receivables; revenue; inventory; property, plant and equipment; intangible assets; and intercorporate investments. For those requiring preparation for CPA designation, competencies as outlined by the CPA are addressed in this textbook. For a detailed competency map, please contact us at info@lyryx.com. It also focuses on more difficult intermediate accounting topics that match prerequisite requirements for students advancing to a second level Intermediate Financial Accounting course. Topics that are covered in Advanced Financial Accounting courses, such as consolidations and foreign exchange, are not included here."--BCcampus website.

Eva had always been intrigued by the realm of magic, but she never anticipated that she would uncover her own sorcerous abilities. She had spent her childhood in a normal family, living in a unremarkable town, devoid of any signs of the supernatural. However, on her sixteenth birthday, her life took an unexpected turn. A mysterious package arrived, sent by her grandmother, who had departed years ago. Within the package lay an timeworn leather-bound book, its cover adorned with the inscription, “The Book of Shadows”. As Eva opened the book, a surge of power coursed through her veins. She realized that the book held the arcane knowledge of her familys magical lineage, and that she was the last descendant of a long line of formidable witches. But she also discovered that she was not alone. There were others like her, individuals who possessed similar abilities, and some of them sought to wield their magic for evil purposes. Eva faced a pivotal decision: embrace her destiny as a witch and delve into the world of sorcery, or reject her newfound powers and continue living her life as she had always known it. Regardless of her choice, she knew that her life would forever be altered from that moment forward.

The Rise and Fall of a Pop Star

She had a vision. She wished to be a pop star. She wished to entertain, to dance, to entertain, to delight. She wished to be famous, to be loved, to be revered. She wanted to have it all, notoriety, wealth, honor. She worked diligently, she practiced, she tried out, she amazed. She got a agreement, a record deal, a manager, a producer. She made an CD, a hit, a sensation. She became a celebrity, a public figure, a marvel. She had it all, followers, fortune, awards. She was on seventh heaven, she was experiencing her goal. But she also had a hidden side. She had a secret, a dilemma, an dependency. She started to lose control, to make mistakes, to cause scandals. She faced backlash, fallout, legal actions. She lost her fans, her fortune, her honors. She fell from grace, she became a joke, a catastrophe. She gave up it all, her recognition, her fortune, her honor. She was the ascent and decline of a pop star.
