The Invisible Web 2020-05-05 Patrice Karst From the author of the million-copy-selling phenomenon The Invisible String comes a moving companion title about our connections to each other, to the world, and to the universe. For twenty years, the modern classic The Invisible String has helped hundreds of thousands of children and adults understand that they are connected to the ones they love, no matter how far apart they are. Now, the author of that bestselling phenomenon uses the same effective bonding technique to explain the very best news of all: All of our strings to one another are interconnected in The Invisible Web. "It breathes as we breathe, pulsating all over our Earth, the single heartbeat of life and love. And do you know what that makes us all? One Very Big Family!" This uplifting inspirational title for all ages puts the concept of "six degrees of separation" into a new context that urges readers to recognize, respect, and celebrate their infinite, unbreakable bonds with the entire human family. Global Food Systems, Diets, and Nutrition 2021-06-05 Jessica Fanzo Ensuring optimal diets and nutrition for the global population is a grand challenge fraught with many contentious issues. To achieve food security for all and protect health, we need functional, equitable, and sustainable food systems. Food systems are highly complex networks of individuals and institutions that depend on governance and policy leadership. This book explains how interconnected food systems and policies affect diets and nutrition in high-, middle-, and low-income countries. In tandem with food policy, food systems determine the availability, affordability, and nutritional quality of the food supply, which influences the diets that people are willing and able to consume. Readers will become familiar with both domestic and international food policy processes and actors, and they will be able to critically analyze and debate how policy and science affect diet and nutrition outcomes.

First Love that Never Fades

Anna could never erase from memory her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at a enchanting summer camp. They were drawn to each other like magnets, spending every day sharing laughter, exchanging heartfelt thoughts, and experiencing the thrill of first love. Their bond was unbreakable, and they vowed to maintain their bond, to cherish their connection, and to love each other forever. But life, as it often does, had a different path in store for them. They lost contact, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the hustle and bustle of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their unwavering connection. At a chance encounter, at a nostalgic reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the spark of their connection rekindled. The same magnetic pull that had drawn them together years ago was still potent. They felt the same excitement that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the reality of their present. Their hearts yearned for the unwavering devotion they had shared, but their minds grappled with the complexity of their current lives. They were caught in a conflict of the heart, torn between the passion of their past and the complications of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a difficult choice. Would they choose the intense connection of their first love, risking the unpredictability that lay ahead, or would they hold onto the predictability of their current lives, forever wondering what could have been? Only time would tell if their unbreakable bond would survive the test of time.

The Journey of a Thousand Miles

He was tired of his existence. He was uninterested, depressed, and discontented. He had a work he hated, a manager he despised, and a partner he didn't cherish. He had no enthusiasm, no aim, no significance. He believed like he was misusing his time, his possibility, his life. He desired to alter, he wished to escape, he desired to live. He resolved to leave his work, to break up with his partner, to sell his belongings, and to acquire a one-way fare to the opposite end of the globe. He didn't realize where he was heading, he didn't understand what he was carrying out, he didn't know what he was seeking. He only understood that he had to leave, that he had to discover, that he had to find out. He set out on a trip of a thousand miles, a voyage of excitement, of challenge, of learning, of progress, of change.
