The "Cost Management: Measuring, Monitoring, and Motivating Performance" is an exhaustive manual that offers actionable insights for the second Canadian edition. This valuable resource, authored by Eldenburg, delves into the intricacies of cost management, shedding light on cost behavior and estimation techniques. It thoroughly explains cost terminology and outlines the different types of cost behavior.

Equipped with established techniques for cost estimation, the manual guides readers through the process of determining future costs. It proficiently utilizes regression analysis in cost estimation, highlighting the benefits and restrictions of cost estimates.

Designed to address specific learning objectives, the manual provides corresponding exercises and problems, ensuring a seamless connection between the textbook and its accompanying guide. It carefully explains the distinctions between fixed costs, variable costs, and mixed costs, complemented by illustrative examples from a car rental agency.

The manual examines the impact of outliers on cost function development, providing valuable insights into this critical aspect of cost estimation. This in-depth guide is available for download or online viewing, offering convenient access to its wealth of knowledge and practical guidance.

Star Wars that Altered Past

It had been the year 23, and the earth stood on the edge of battle. The USA and China, the two superpowers, had been locked in a ferocious rivalry, vying for assets, power, and dominance. They had both created high-tech arms, like lasers, unmanned aerial vehicles, and satellites, that could hit any place, any time. They had covertly established space stations, that can launch nuclear missiles, which could obliterate the earth. They were both prepared to utilize these weapons, if at all necessary. But they were alone. There existed a 3rd entity, a secret force, that had watching them both, waiting patiently for them, preparing for them both. They were the ETs, and they had come to stop them both. They had come to protect the world, or to end it. They had arrived to begin the galactic wars which transformed past.
