Anna could never erase from memory her first love, Leo. Their paths had crossed when they were both 16, at a idyllic summer camp. They were utterly smitten, spending every day sharing laughter, engaging in deep conversations, and sharing stolen kisses. Their bond was unbreakable, and they vowed to keep in touch, to wait for each other, and to love each other forever. But life, as it often does, had a different path in store for them. They lost communication, they moved on with their lives, and they eventually married other people. Years passed, and the whirlwind of life took them in different directions. But fate, it seems, had not forgotten their undeniable connection. At a chance encounter, at a sentimental reunion, their paths crossed once again. The moment they laid eyes on each other, the embers of their affection rekindled. The same magnetic pull that had drawn them together years ago was still palpable. They felt the same thrill that had fueled their teenage romance, but they also felt the burden of their past. Their souls ached for the deep connection they had shared, but their minds grappled with the tangled web of their current lives. They were caught in an emotional battle, torn between the alluring memories of their first love and the complications of their present. They stood at a defining moment, forced to make a heartbreaking choice. Would they choose the all-consuming passion of their first love, risking the unknown that lay ahead, or would they hold onto the predictability of their current lives, forever wondering what could have been? Only time would tell if their unwavering connection would find a way to prevail.

Creating a synthesis paper involves pulling together data from multiple sources to present a well-rounded debate on a topic. Here are the steps to write a perfect outline for a synthesis paper:

1. Select a Appropriate Topic: Select a topic that matches with your interests and the assignment needs.
2. Conduct Comprehensive Research: Investigate various sources, such as articles, books, and scholarly journals, to gather information.
3. Outline Your Structure: Start with an intro that catches the readers interest and presents your argument – what your paper will debate. After that, outline what each of your body paragraphs will talk about. Be certain to include details from different sources.
4. Compose Sections with Subject Sentences: Devote each section to a specific sub-topic or source. Start with a clear topic sentence directly linked to your thesis. Present the source youre synthesizing and outline its key points. Back up your arguments with evidence from the source, using quotes, paraphrases, or summaries.
5. Review, Edit, and Check: Review your paper for any mistakes or inconsistencies.
