You've Already Got It!
2006-11 Andrew Wommack
Many Christians believe God can do anything, but they don't understand the completion of His plan through Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. It is in the discovery of what God has already done, that our walk with Him becomes a joy and an adventure Jesus' sacrifice on the cross was great. He exchanged His perfect life and all the power of heaven for our sins, our weaknesses. Through Him our eternal destiny is set. Yet in our day-to-day lives, It seems that we still deal with so many challenges - sickness, financial struggles, difficult relationships, our own shortcomings. Is it possible to walk in victory in this life? Andrew Wommack reveals powerful truths in this practical view of the work of Jesus Christ-truths that are life changing. Readers will learn how Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection not only paid for their eternal salvation, but gave them everything they need for abundant life right here, right now. Andrew encourages readers to avoid being like the dog constantly chasing his tail, not realizing he already has it. As readers begin to understand the extent of the work on the cross, their walk with God will be renewed and their life in Christ will become an adventure beyond anything they ever though possible Wommack approaches faith from a no-nonsense and unique perspective

he challenges the reader to evaluate their idea of faith in God. Written along the same lines as Kenneth Hagin's How to Turn Your Faith Loose and Right and Wrong Thinking, Wommack goes a step further by revealing the erroneous teachings that encourage believers to beg for God's help. Instead he shows that Jesus already finished His work when He was resurrected and now it's the believer's responsibility and privilege to enforce that victory against the powers of darkness.

Step Generation 2010-05-25 David Ballard Basically, the enemy we face in our country today is not an enemy attacking from the outside of our border, but an enemy embedded within. Freedom cannot thrive if the family unit does not survive. Without an understanding of noble sacrifice, serving others, or divine accountability, we are doomed. The time is critical. We need men to step up to the plate of leadership; we need women to come alongside; and we need abandonment to be abandoned. As mentioned on the backside of this book, I am a product of this loose lifestyle myself, and as I matured into a young adult, I just fell into my place of hurting and misleading others too. This may be a similar lifestyle that you are in or came from. I did not truly understand the destruction that I was distributing until I looked at the wake I was leaving behind lifestyle. So where did my personal change come from in my life? First of all, my personal change wasn't as easy as an oil change at Walmart. No, it was more like an engine overhaul by NASCAR. Disassembly of thoughts and lifestyle is part of the process. Reassembly with perseverance, grace, and love is a must in order to foster a changed life. Between the self-help books, shots of tequila, A.C.A. meetings, a couple six-packs, some acid trips, divorce, counseling, and losing my car a couple times, plus a dozen or so girlfriends, I finally opened a book my grandmother had given me. This book introduced me to Jesus. Now please don't drop this book and run. I'm not here to convert or preach, but I wouldn't be honest if I didn't mention the Bible and Jesus. Through both, I've learned the ability to love others as I would have liked to be loved as a child.

Sacrificial, unadulterated, and kind—love that leads to the building up of others, not only to build my family directly but mankind as a whole. People obviously learn how to love by the example given them by their parents. The model lived out before them is the foundation with which they'll build their lives on. Women won't reach their full potential as an adult until they have made the decisions required of a mother, and boys won't grow up and become men until they are challenged to serve their own family and not themselves. Even if you don't believe in the Bible as an inspired word of God, Jesus taught us to be accountable to something bigger than ourselves and to love our neighbor as ourselves. If we could just put those two things into action—first in our lives, then our families' lives—our communities would thrive and not have to get into welfare lines, a

With the words "Leave the mirror and change your face. Leave the world alone and change your conceptions of yourself," Goddard invites us to resist the temptation toward judgment and to look at ourselves for the change we want to see in the world and in others. "God's promise is unconditional; God's law is conditional, and comes in its own good time. If you do not experience it in this life," he said, "You pass through a door, that's all that death is, and you are restored to life instantly in a world like this, and you go on there with the same problems you had here with no loss of identity."

It doesn't matter what you believe-just that you believe sincerely. But Jesus said that: He alone is the way to God. He alone shows us the truth of who God is. He alone gives us life close to God. evidence as to why we should choose Jesus Christ as THE God among all other gods. Zacharias contrasts the truth of Jesus with the founders of Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism, providing strong descriptions of each faith and solid defenses for the cause of Christ. In addition to the religion comparisons, the book answers questions such as: "What about all the hypocrites at church?" "How scientific is science?" "How can you best share what you believe?" and "Does the Bible teach reincarnation?" You can never be too young to learn how to defend your faith . . . and this book will tell you exactly how to do just that!

Where Kinnaman's first book unChristian showed the world what outsiders aged 16-29 think of Christianity, You Lost Me shows why younger Christians aged 16-29 are leaving the church and rethinking their faith. Based on new research, You Lost Me shows pastors, church leaders, and parents how we have failed to equip young people to live "in but not of" the world and how this has serious long-term consequences. More importantly, Kinnaman offers ideas on how to help young people develop and maintain a vibrant faith that they embrace over a lifetime.

mother and passed them down to her daughter etc. This came to me in the form of a homemade spiral bound book and myself and another typed them up for all to share. I have prayed about this project and felt very strongly that God is leading me to share them with you. Please pass this along to others as you see fit. If you have a website, and you feel led by God, please share this .pdf on your website for others as a free gift from God. After praying for wisdom and discernment, I read through this book more than once and it comes across as wonderful proverbs where even one paragraph is an amazing Word from Him who created us. Here are some examples:  The prayer of adoration supersedes all other prayer. Not all of My children are so inclined that they can lose themselves in such a great love for their Creator, their Father, their God.

rare gift. Restore to our Father His love, that it may return endlessly in this glory of mutual giving and receiving.  Life is in the blood. When you “plead the Blood of Jesus” you are asking for a pouring out of My life upon the person or into the situation that concerns you. My life, offered for you on the Cross, confers harmony, confers peace, confers joy, confers power-over-evil, confers victory. It is yours for the asking in exchange for your life, your will, freely given to Me.

 Receiving the love I give from our Father, you become its distributor and disburser. It is not always necessary to be in a place of proximity to the loved ones you would touch with love. In your thoughts they may be closer to your soul and more receptive to what you offer them.

 Full of vital instruction and high inspiration as is the Bible, so are other writings. Yet, the Bible is unique. Its importance is in its power to bring you into a close personal relationship with Me, your Jesus.

 Christ's Blessing upon you as you read this.
