heart." —Colm Tóibín Anne Enright is one of the most acclaimed novelists of her generation. The Gathering won the 2007 Man Booker Prize, and her follow-up novel, The Forgotten Waltz, garnered universal praise for her luminous language and deep insight into relationships. Now, in Making Babies, Enright offers a new kind of memoir: an unapologetic look at the very personal experience of becoming a mother. With a refreshing no-nonsense attitude, Enright opens up about the birth and first two years of her children's lives. Enright was married for eighteen years before she and her husband Martin, a playwright, decided to have children. Already a confident, successful writer, Enright continued to work in her native Ireland after each of her two babies was born. While each baby slept, those first two years of life, Enright wrote, in dispatches, about the mess, the glory, and the raw shock of motherhood. Here, unfiltered and irreverent, are Enright's keen reactions to the pains of pregnancy, the joys of Making Babys Clothes 25 Fun And Practical Projects For 0 3 Year Olds Pdf Pdf upload Donald r Williamson breast milk, and the all-too-common pressures to be the "perfect" parent. Supremely observant and endlessly quizzical, Enright is never saccharine, always witty, but also deeply loving. Already a bestseller in the UK, Making Babies brings Enright's autobiographical writing to American readers for the first time. Tender and candid, it captures beautifully just what it's like for a working woman to become a mother. The result is a moving chronicle of parenthood from one of the most distinctive and gifted authors writing today.

The Mystery of the Missing Diamond

It was a shadowy and stormy night. The downpour was falling heavily, and the wind was roaring. In the middle of the town, there was an exhibition, where a precious diamond was on display. The diamond was called the Star of Africa, and it was the largest and most gorgeous diamond in the earth. It was secured by an advanced security system, and a group of weaponized guards. No one could steal it, or so they assumed. But someone did. Someone succeeded to get around the protection, to evade the watchmen, to smash the glass, and to take the diamond. And no one observed them, no one listened to them, no one knew who they were. They exited no trace, no lead, no proof. They faded into the darkness, with the African Star. And the mystery of the lost diamond
