The book “Analyzing Casual Conversation” by Suzanne Eggins and Diana Slade, first published in 1997, establishes a systematic model for the analysis and description of casual conversation in English. The authors argue that in spite of its sometimes aimless look and apparently unstructured material, casual conversation is a very structured activity and plays a crucial role in the social building of reality. The work goes through genuine instances of casual conversations entailing participants differing in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class<sup>12</sup>. Pulling on insights from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the publication equips readers with the examinative skills to portray the strata of structure and critical interpretive structures to elucidate the ‘social work' that occurs on through chat.

Nelson Mandela stands as one of the most influential leaders of the 20th century. His life journey began on July 18, 1918, in the tranquil village of Mvezo, South Africa. Born into the Thembu royal family, he was bestowed with the name Rolihlahla, meaning “troublemaker” in Xhosa. Mandelas upbringing unfolded amidst a backdrop of racial oppression, where he witnessed firsthand the unjust treatment inflicted upon the Black majority by the ruling white minority government. Driven by a deep sense of fairness, he dedicated his life to the struggle for freedom and fairness, joining the African National Congress (ANC), a political organization dedicated to dismantling apartheid, the system of racial discrimination that plagued South Africa. Emerging as a inspiring lawyer, activist, and leader, Mandela faced numerous arrests and imprisonments for his unwavering resistance and defiance. For 27 years, he endured the harsh conditions and isolation of Robben Island, a notorious prison island, where his hope never wavered. His unwavering commitment to liberation continued to inspire and mobilize his people and the world at large. In 1990, he walked out of prison, free at last, and in 1994, he made history as South Africas first democratically elected Black president.
