General Intelligence and Test of Reasoning, 2nd Edition 2017 S Chand Experts General Intelligence and Test of Reasoning owes its existence to comprehensive research and strategic planning. A thorough coverage of the reasoning section of various competitive examinations has been achieved after an in-depth research and proper analysis of original papers of the UPSC, SSC, banking services, B-school tests and tests by other central and state-level recruitment bodies. A unique aspect of this book is the approach it adopts in explaining the concepts of verbal analysis, non-verbal analysis, critical reasoning and data interpretation. Each chapter starts with a brief introduction to the various formats of questions asked in competitive examinations, followed by topic-specific tests, which provide numerous multiple-choice questions that involve students in an interactive way to improve their accuracy level. The last chapter provides scientifically structured and exam-oriented test papers to familiarize candidates with current trends and types of questions. These test papers and self-scoring tables will help students assess their own level of preparation.

Journey of a Thousand Miles

He was tired of his living. He was uninterested, sad, and unsatisfied. He had a employment he detested, a manager he despised, and a significant other he didn't cherish. He had no zeal, no purpose, no significance. He felt like he was misusing his hours, his capability, his being. He desired to alter, he wanted to escape, he desired to live. He decided to resign from his employment, to end things with his girlfriend, to sell his possessions, and to purchase a one-way fare to the far end of the earth. He didn't realize where he was proceeding, he didn't know what he was doing, he didn't realize what he was seeking. He only realized that he had to go, that he had to explore, that he had to discover. He set out on a voyage of a thousand miles, a journey of adventure, of difficulty, of education, of growth, of alteration.
