vocabulary evaluation that has been in practice for nearly 50 years. Created by Lloyd M. Dunn and Douglas M. Dunn, the evaluation is designed to evaluate receptive vocabulary for American English. It is fast and easy to administer, preserving important time so that attention can be put on implementing effective interventions. The PPVT-4 test content covers a wide scope of vocabulary comprehension levels, spanning from pre-kindergarten through adulthood. The test items widely feature words that represent 20 content areas (e.g., actions, vegetables, tools), speech parts (nouns, verbs, attributes), and home and educational vocabulary. The test offers two identical forms which include distinct vocabulary words, ensuring that the test-taker has not “memorized” the assessment. One version can be employed prior to intervention to measure people’s vocabulary understanding and the second version can be employed for re-testing to assess and record progress. The PPVT-4 also contains a unique Growth Scale Value (GSV) which is sensitive to minor changes over time.

Digital media has become an integral element of our day-to-day lives, specifically for the new generation. We employ it to communicate, to share, to educate ourselves, to divert, and to convey our thoughts. But what are the impacts of social media on our mental health? In which manner does it impact our mood, our self-respect, our relations, our well-being, and our actions? This publication aspires to address these queries, by reviewing the most recent studies and evidence on the issue. It was the year 23, and the earth was at the verge of conflict. The USA and PRC, the pair of superpowers, were engaged in a intense competition, competing for assets, dominance, and control. They had engineered sophisticated arms, like lasers, unmanned aerial vehicles, and satellites, that can strike any location, any moment. They had also covertly established space stations, which can deploy nuclear missiles, that could obliterate the world. They were ready to employ these weapons, if needed. But they were not the sole ones. There was a third force, a secret power, that had observing them, waiting patiently for them, getting ready for them. They were ETs, and they had come to stop them both. They had come to protect the globe, or to end it all. They had come to initiate the space wars which transformed chronicle.
