Lolita circle of peace reflections on the bahai__The book “Analyzing Casual Conversation” by Suzanne Eggins and Diana Slade, originally issued in 1997, develops a organized model for the analysis and depiction of casual conversation in English. The authors assert that in spite of its sometimes aimless appearance and apparently unstructured material, casual conversation is a extremely structured activity and plays a crucial function in the social formation of reality. The book goes through genuine samples of casual conversations involving participants diverging in age, gender, ethnicity, and socio-economic class12. Deriving on insights from sociology, linguistics, and critical semiotics, the publication equips readers with the analytic skills to depict the levels of structure and critical interpretive structures to clarify the ‘social work’ that happens on through chat.
